I mario Bug none oppose to the Proposal of the federal trade Commission to create a national Do-Not-Ca list that would extend to and include calls made on Behalf of Non Profit Organizations because telemarketing continues because it works. Now people like to recieve calls to support organizations when they stop giving over the phone, charities will stop calling them. Its the American way. We don't need goverment's intervention.

13071