To whom it may concern:

I feel the current rules should be preserved. In the face of ever-increasing foreign imports in our market place, we need the "Made in the USA" label to guide us in the purchase of USA made goods.

I buy USA and am having a harder & harder time as some goods have no labels at all. The corporations exploit the people overseas but our people too! When I can find USA made goods it is cheap as the imports and sometimes even less. Also better made.

We need to get those good paying jobs back in this country. In the end we not only lose our jobs but the know-how. We will not be able to make the clothes we wear or the tools to defend ourselves in case of war.
