FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

SECRETARY

June 12, 2006.

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing this letter because I am concerned about the proposed Business Opportunity Rule R511993. I believe that if this rule is adopted, I will have a hard time continuing my business as a Mannatech independent associate. I understand that the FTC is responsible for protecting the public from "unfair and deceptive acts of practices", but some of the sections of this proposed rule will make it very difficult for me to sell Mannatech's great products.

I am a nurse at my towns local hospital. I work thing 12 hour shifts. By being an independent associate with Mannatech, I am slowly working my way to financial independence by having my own business. I will be able to spend more time with my family as well as help others with their wellness by using Mannatech's products. Mannatech complies with all buy back requirements and makes it easy for people to leave the Company, if the business opportunity is not right for them.

The seven-day waiting period is unnecessary and gives the impression that something is wrong with the plan. By these actions the FTC is doing a disservice to me and other Americans who are just trying to get ahead of our bills and take care of our families.

I appreciate the work of the FTC to protect consumers, but I believe this proposed new rule has many unintended consequences. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
