ORDER REQUIRING BRIEFING

The March 20, 2009 Order in this case directed that an evidentiary hearing will be held on April 21, 2009 in order to properly, with due consideration, resolve the limited issue of whether Daniel Chapter One (“DCO”) is a “corporation” within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. § 44 and applicable case law.

The parties are hereby required to provide pre-hearing briefs in advance of the hearing on jurisdiction. Each pre-hearing brief on jurisdiction shall include the following:

- 1) A list of witnesses with a description of the jurisdictional facts to which each witness is expected to testify. Parties may not list as witnesses any individuals not previously listed on the party’s revised and final witness lists previously exchanged unless by order of the Administrative Law Judge upon a showing of good cause;
- 2) A list of exhibits each party anticipates introducing at the hearing on the limited issue of jurisdiction;
- 3) A brief memorandum of law demonstrating the application of legal authority to the facts of this case only on the issue of whether DCO is a corporation within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. § 44 and applicable case law.

Both parties shall file their pre-hearing brief on jurisdiction by April 10, 2009.
Both parties are permitted to file a reply by April 15, 2009.

ORDERED:

D. Michael Chappell
Administrative Law Judge
