Docket No. 9318

ORDER GRANTING JOINT MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME

On September 21, 2004, the parties filed a joint motion for enlargement of time requesting an extension of five days for Respondents to reply to Complaint Counsel’s subpoena duces tecum. The motion is GRANTED.

The motion, which was served on the Office of Administrative Law Judges (“OALJ”) via the United States Postal Service, was not received in a timely fashion by the OALJ. The parties shall provide timely service of all motions to the OALJ. Moreover, when requesting an extension based on good cause, the reasons therefore shall be specifically explained in the motion – general statements will not suffice.

ORDERED:

Stephen J. McGuire
Chief Administrative Law Judge

Date: October 12, 2004
