

I want to go on record to state that if I pay for a service - eye examination, glasses fitting, contact fitting - I have the right to my prescription, copies of my records/files, etc.

Who has the right to deny this? These are my eyes - I don't leave them at the doctor's office - why should I leave my prescription?

Robin Hinton

PA