

I feel strongly, as the parent of two young contact wearers, that I and they should have the right to buy their contact lenses from whomever they choose. There is no way that a doctor should control this whatsoever. We need to be able to make a choice between different contact provider companies, to compare prices and get the best deal.

Thank you for helping to fight for us.

Carol Kozlowski