

I support the new contact lens law, I like having a choice of receiving my prescription and buying my lens at a reasonable price and not the inflated price some eye doctors charge. Were paying for the exam we should at least get a copy of the prescription. sincerely Peter Conlon