

From: Richgels, Shari
To: CONTACTLENSRULE
Cc:
Subject:
Attachments:

Sent: Wed 3/17/2004 12:07 PM

The rule which can enable an individual from obtaining new contact lenses for days is absurd. Contact lense wearers like the convenience of getting them within minutes of presenting their perscription and lens fitting documents. Why would you wish to interfere in this portion of an individual's eyecare? You have no right to do that. What do you stand to gain?

Shari Richgels
Special Accounts Representative
CHS