Thank you for passing the new law allowing contact lens wearers the right to receive their prescription from their eyecare provider with no obligations. This is a BIG deal to those of us who have been unable to easily shop around for the best deal on contacts.

This country is strong in part because of our capitalism. The FTC made a wise decision to uphold that principle in this case. Competition among contact lens providers and retail sellers will ultimately provide better prices and service from these parties.

I urge you to protect this important law from those lobbying to repeal it.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Eric Pierce
