

From: William Payne
Sent: Friday, March 05, 2004 12:56 PM
To: CONTACTLENSRULE
Cc:
Subject: Contact Lens Consumer

Dear Sir/Madam:

Contact lens consumers must have the ability to purchase lenses from whomever they choose. Therefore, doctors should provide patients with a copy of their prescriptions at no additional cost. Doctors should not restrict patients to buying lenses from the doctor's office location, as this allows them to limit consumer choice and motivates them to prescribe costly products.

Thank you for your consideration,

William H. Payne

NH