I do not want limitations placed on how I will purchase contacts in the future. I am already upset about the fact that I have to get measured for contacts and get charged by my eye doctor. Which already holds up my contact purchases.

They keep measuring, my eyes don't change and they keep taking my money. This is just another ploy by their lobby to sway us from seeking our contacts elsewhere and for more money. I know how the eye doctors live they don't need additional money, it comes down to greed.
