Gentlemen:

Please do not implement the rule you are proposing to have people wait days before they can fill their contact lens prescriptions. As I would guess most people do, I schedule my yearly eye exam for the latest possible date, and then need to order my lenses quickly. That way I don't run out before I must have new lenses, but I also am not spending my money before I need to.

This proposed rule will make it much more complicated and difficult to purchase and wear contact lenses. In this fast-paced world, convenience and fast service counts for a lot. And, as far as I can tell, this proposed rule is completely unnecessary.

Thank you -
