I am writing to let you know that I want to be able to purchase my contact lenses where I choose. It is much more convenient for me to do so over the internet as I can be assured that I will receive them within days, not weeks, as is the case with the eye doctor. It also provides me with the convenience of not leaving my home and having them delivered to my door. Also, the prices online are much more affordable than if I purchase them through my doctor.

Thank you so much,
