Dear Federal Trade Commission:

I 100% support the new Contact Lens Law. I recently had an eye exam and then moved soon thereafter. Once I got settled, I went to purchase contacts only to find that my previous eye care provider would not release my prescription. As a result, I had to get another eye exam at my expense. This could have easily been avoided had I been able to get my current prescription. As a concerned consumer I urge you to do what you can to enforce this law. Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Shawn Pew
