Sirs:

I would like to register my disagreement with any proposed rule that would require waiting more than a few hours for a contact order to be shipped. I have attempted to obtain contacts through other cheap sources (other than my ophthalmologist), such as Sam's Club, but they invariably do not have my prescription in stock, so I appreciate the speed with which I can obtain contacts (after providing a copy of my prescription) online or over the telephone.

Thank you for your attention to these comments.
