I support the law giving contact lens wearers the right to their contact lens prescription. I do not want my Dr. to be the one to decide where I purchase my lenses. I like the ease of mail order contacts and actually comply with recommendations on length of wear better because it's easier to obtain the lenses. I switched eye doctors when the first one refused to give me my prescription.

I want freedom in buying my lenses on the open market.

I paid the optometrist to do the exam. They should not be able to hold me hostage for product.

Dear FTC,

As someone who has required prescription eye care for 16 years and has been wearing contact lenses for 10 years, I know well the expense of eye care, products, and lenses. I need the freedom to shop around for the best price, and I can only do that if you support the Fairness to Contact Lens Consumers Act of 2003. With this law, I still get professional eyecare from my doctor, but am not required to pay the extreme high prices they mandate. Thank you,

FTC.

I support the law which gives me
the right to my contact lens prescription.
I recently purchased new contacts,
upon calling 3 opticians for fitting fees
and cost, there was a ~~$90.00~~ → $300.00 difference. As a consumer, I want the choice to purchase lens where I choose.

Thank you
