

March, 8 - 2007

FTC, Office of the Secretary
Room 159
600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20580

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking - Comment. FTC File No. R441007

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a single parent, college student working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet.

I believe that your efforts would be better focused on fraud and not the legitimate marketers like the one I work for, because of this I am concerned about the impact the revisions might have on the company I'm ~~currently~~ affiliated with.

Keep in mind Telemarketing means jobs to many single parents and college students, these restrictions might cost the people who can least afford it the opportunity to work and make ends meet.

Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
1811-~~Arhanta~~ Shelta

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED], PL [REDACTED]

... ..
... ..
... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

1811-B

To The Attention of :

The office of the Secretary of Federal Trade Comm.

To Whom it May CONCERN.

I oppose the proposal of the F.T.C NATIONAL NO CALL LIST. Advances in communication have made the public more accessible to non profit and charitable organizations. The public has a right to be informed about the good services and charities that are available to them. The phone is faster than door to door and cheaper than TV or radio. The public always has the right to say yes or no in the end. I feel that a national no call list is censorship + violates the concept of a free market democracy.

Concerned citizen

William Allen Shive

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] FL [REDACTED]

Mar. 7th, 2002

FTC, Office of the Secretary
Room 159
600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20580

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking – Comment. FTC File No. R411001

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a college student, working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet.

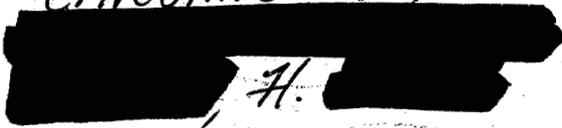

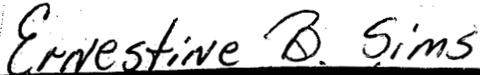

I work for a telemarketing company, which maintains a company do-not-call list that is enforced. I have been instructed by my supervision on how to handle and honor do-not-call requests. I believe that your efforts would be better focused on fraud and not the legitimate marketers like the one I work for. Telemarketing means jobs. These restrictions might cost the people who can least afford it the opportunity to work.

Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Ernestine B. Sims

March 8, 2002

FTC, Office of the Secretary
Room 159
600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20580

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking – Comment. FTC File No. R411001

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet. I believe that your efforts would be better focused on fraud and not the legitimate marketers like the one I work for. Telemarketing means jobs. These restrictions might cost the people who can least afford it the opportunity to work.

Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Lisa Slayton

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED], FL
[REDACTED]

Mar. 7th, 2002

FTC, Office of the Secretary
Room 159
600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20580

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking – Comment. FTC File No. R411001

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a single parent, working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet. Telemarketing means jobs. These restrictions might cost the people who can least afford it the opportunity to work.

Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Sharon Smith

Sharon Smith

SHARON SMITH

Florida

1815

March 8, 2002

Gentlemen -

Please, please have a national registry that people can register to have telemarketers not call them. The very fact that anyone has to go through this to have privacy on their telephone is ridiculous!

My husband has alzheimers. I work 2 days a week. I am probably going to have to take my phone off the hook. I just got through trying to cancel a Capital One credit card. They called while I was at work & apparently he gave them his S.S. # & signed up for one. How can this be without a valid signature? Just when you thought this sort of thing never could happen to you!! I wonder what other surprises await me!!

Please - give us some recourse!

Thank you,
Mrs Robert Spencer

3-8-02

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a college student working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet. I work for a telemarketing company, which maintains a company do-not-call list that is enforced. I have been instructed by my supervision on how to handle and honor do-not-call requests. I am concerned about the impact the revisions might have on the company I work for. Telemarketing means jobs. These restrictions might cost the people who can least afford it the opportunity to work.

Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
Danielle Stowell

Danielle Stowell

1817

Mar. 7th, 2002

FTC, Office of the Secretary
Room 159
600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20580

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking – Comment. FTC File No. R411001

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a college student and an Ordained Minister, working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet. I work for a telemarketing company, which maintains a company do-not-call list that is enforced. I have been instructed by my supervision on how to handle and honor do-not-call requests. Also, Telemarketing means jobs. These restrictions might cost the people who can least afford it the opportunity to work.

Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Rev. Jacqueline Lee Strathman
Rev. Jacqueline Lee Strathman

FL

P.S. - Due to the Sept. 11th Tragedy these are very difficult times for us in the Orlando/Kissimmee area. We are 99% Tourist based here. When people stopped flying, our families stopped eating.

Telemarketing jobs that reach outside our state selling Non-Tourist related products have provided income and stability in our region.

Furthermore, many of our customers greatly appreciate us checking in with them about new offers. Some people I call have been purchasing books/products thru us for 30-50 years. They might ask to be on the Federal Do Not Call List and not realize they're blocking our calls as well.

PLEASE DO NOT CREATE A FEDERAL

1010

PATRICK SULLIVAN

MARCH 7, 2002

[REDACTED], CA [REDACTED]

SRS,

I AM WRITING ABOUT MY OPPOSITION TO A NATIONAL "DO NOT CALL" LIST. NOW I UNDERSTAND THAT THE INFUX OF FRAUDULENT ORGANIZATIONS THAT EMPLOY TELEMARKETERS WHO HARASS AND SCAM CITIZENS HAVE MADE LAW MAKERS FEEL THAT THIS SEEMS TO BE NECESSARY BUT I DONT AGREE.

MANY FUNDRAISING ORGANIZATIONS THAT ARE LEGITIMATE STRICTLY ENFORCE THEIR OWN "DONOT CALL" POLICIES SO A NATIONAL LIST IS DEFINITELY NOT NECESSARY. PEOPLE WHO DONOT WANT TO BE ON ONE LIST MAY CHOOSE TO SUPPORT OTHERS AND I FEEL THAT A NATIONAL LIST TAKES AWAY THAT CHOICE. AND IN THE LONG RUN THE CHARITIES THAT FUNDRAISERS CALL FOR WILL SUFFER.

S.

THANK YOU,

PATRICK SULLIVAN

Dear FTC comission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales rule. I am working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet. I believe that your efforts would be better Focused on Fraud and not the legitimate marketers like the one I work for. I am concerned about the impact the revisions might have on the company I work for. Telemarketing means jobs. These restrictions might cost the people who can least afford it the opportunity to work. Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the telemarketing sales rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or Testimony, Feel Free to contact me

Sincerely
Tina Sutherland Tina Sutherland

Mar. 7th, 2002

FTC, Office of the Secretary
Room 159
600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20580

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking – Comment. FTC File No. R411001

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a widow, working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet.

I work for a telemarketing company, which maintains a company do-not-call list that is enforced. I have been instructed by my supervision on how to handle and honor do-not-call requests. I am aware that my company subscribes to the numerous state do-not-call lists as well as the nationwide do-not-call list of the Direct Marketing Association. It seems to me that an additional federal do-not-call list would be a waste of time and money.

Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Joann Tobiasen

, FL

3/9/02

FTC, Office of the Secretary

Room 159

600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW

Washington, DC 20580

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking - Comment
FTC File # RA11001

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a married woman working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet. I am concerned about the impact the revisions might have on the company I work for. Once again, I would like to stress my opposition & concern regarding the proposed revisions to Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Liana Torres

PN: [REDACTED]

Add: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] FL [REDACTED]

1823

Mar. 7th, 2002

FTC, Office of the Secretary
Room 159
600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20580

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking – Comment. FTC File No. R411001

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a single woman, working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet. I work for a telemarketing company, which maintains a company do-not-call list that is enforced. I have been instructed by my supervision on how to handle and honor do-not-call requests. I believe that your efforts would be better focused on fraud and not the legitimate marketers like the one I work for.

Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Maria E. Torres

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] FL
[REDACTED]

FTC, OFFICE of the Secretary

ROOM 159

600 PENNSYLVANIA AVE., NW

WASHINGTON, DC 20580

RE: TELEMARKETING RULEMAKING COMMENT FTC FILE NO. R411001

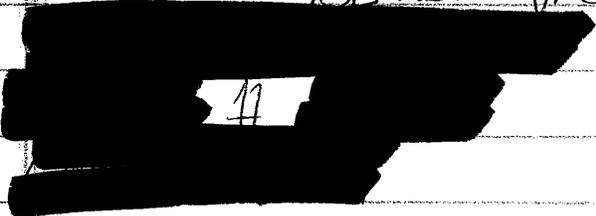

3/8/02

DEAR FTC COMMISSION,

I AM WRITING TO EXPRESS MY OPPOSITION TO THE CHANGES PROPOSED TO THE TELEMARKETING ~~SPES~~ RULES. I AM A PERSON WORKING TWO JOBS ONE OF WHICH IS WORKING A PART-TIME TELEMARKETING JOB TO HELP MAKE ENDS MEET. I AM AWARE THAT MY COMPANY SUBSCRIBES TO THE NUMEROUS STATE DO-NOT-CALL LISTS AS WELL AS THE NATIONWIDE DO-NOT-CALL LIST OF THE DIRECT MARKETING ASSOCIATION. IT SEEMS TO ME THAT AN ADDITIONAL FEDERAL DO-NOT-CALL LIST WOULD BE A WASTE OF TIME AND MONEY.

ONCE AGAIN, I WOULD LIKE TO STRESS MY OPPOSITION AND CONCERN REGARDING THE PROPOSED ~~CHANGES~~ PROVISIONS TO THE TELEMARKETING ~~SPES~~ RULE. PLEASE ACCEPT THIS LETTER FOR CONSIDERATION BEFORE IMPLEMENTING ANY OF THE PROPOSED CHANGES. IF I CAN PROVIDE YOU WITH ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR TESTIMONY, FEEL FREE TO CONTACT ME.

Sincerely,
YOLANDA VASQUEZ

March 8, 2002

FTC, Office of the Secretary
Room 159
600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20580

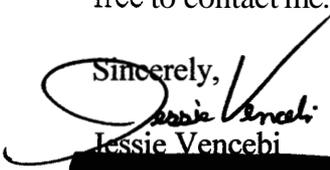

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking – Comment. FTC File No. R411001

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet. I work for a telemarketing company, which maintains a company do-not-call list that is enforced. I have been instructed by my supervision on how to handle and honor do-not-call requests. I believe that your efforts would be better focused on fraud and not the legitimate marketers like the one I work for. Much like the drug war, we go after the user and not the dealer. This not only perpetuates the problem, but also does not address the real issue. Furthermore, I feel that in today's economy, we need as many jobs as are available. All Americans have felt the impact of September 11, some more than others. I personally was working for a large corporation, making a large salary, and was laid off. Telemarketing was the only thing I could find that was hiring. There are college students, single parents, retirees, and handicapped people all trying to keep their heads above water. It would be a travesty to put all of these people out of flexible, legal employment during a time when the dollar is such a weak and rare commodity.

Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jessie Vencehi

, FL

1826

March 11, 2002

FTC, Office of the Secretary
Room 159
600 Pennsylvania Ave. NW.
Washington, DC. 20580

Re. Telemarketing Rulesmaking - Comment. FTC File
R411001

Dear: FTC. Commission.

I Am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a single parent working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet. I work for a telemarketing company, which maintains a company do-not-call list that is enforced. I have been instructed by my supervision on how to handle and honor do-not-call request.

Once again I would like to stress my opposition + concern regarding the proposed revisions to the telemarketing Sales Rule.

Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely
Miguel Vera

1827

1-21-02

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

PLEASE REMOVE MY NAME AND PHONE LISTING FROM THE AVAILABLE FILE USED BY ANY TELEMARKETING COMPANYS. I

DO NOT WISH TO BE CONTACTED FOR ANY PROMOTIONAL DEALS.

THANK YOU.

DONALD R. WAHLKE

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] OHIO [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

I Believe that your Efforts would be better focused ON Fraud and not the Legitimate Marketers Like the One I Work For.

I am Concerned about the impact the revisions might have on the Co. I Work for.

Telemarketing means Jobs. The Restrictions might Cost the People Who can least afford it the Opportunity To Work. ONCE again, I Would like<sup>to</sup> Stress my opposition, and concern regarding the proposed revisions, to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this Letter For Consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

As a Divorcee I need and DO Hope and Pray, that you would Reconsider, that I really need to work as a TeleMarketer, I really do like my job, and I'm a people person, I like talking to people Every Where. This will be a hardship For me, If I Lose this position. I do hope, this don't happen to me, or any of the Telemarketers Nation'wide.

Ossie L. Ward

[REDACTED], FL [REDACTED]

Sincerely,
Ossie L. Ward,

I Believe that your Efforts would be better focused ON Fraud and not the Legitimate Marketers Like the One I Work For.

I am Concerned about the impact the Revisions might have on the Co. I Work for.

Telemarketing means Jobs. The Restrictions might Cost the People Who can least afford it the Opportunity To Work. ONCE again, I would like<sup>to</sup> Stress my opposition, and concern regarding the proposed revisions, to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this Letter For Consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

As a Divorcee I need and DO Hope and Pray, that you would Reconsider, that I really need to Work as a TeleMarketer, I really do like my Job, and I'm a people person, I like Talking to people Everywhere. This will be a hardship For me, If I Lose this position. I do hope this don't happen to me, or any of the Telemarketers NationWide.

Ossie L. Ward

[REDACTED], FL [REDACTED]

Sincerely,
Ossie L. Ward,

Mar. 7th, 2002

FTC, Office of the Secretary
Room 159
600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20580

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking – Comment. FTC File No. R411001

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a college student, working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet.

I work for a telemarketing company, which maintains a company do-not-call list that is enforced. I have been instructed by my supervision on how to handle and honor do-not-call requests. I am concerned about the impact the revisions might have on the company I work for.

Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jenny T. Washington

FL

FTC, office of the Secretary

3/08/02

Room 159

600 PENNSYLVANIA Ave. NW

Washington, D.C. 20580 - Re: Telemarketing Rule X | No: R411001

DEAR FTC Commission,

I AM Writing to Express My Opposition to the Changes Proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule.

I AM A Single Parent With 2 Children Working A Part time telemarketing Job to help MAKE ENDS meet.

I Work for A telemarketing company, Which Maintains a Company do-not-call list that is enforced.

I have been instructed by supervision on how to handle and honor do-not-call request.

I am concerned about the impact the revisions might have on the company I work for.

Telemarketing means jobs, These restrictions might cost the People who can least afford it the opportunity to work.

Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule.

Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any Proposed changes. If I can Provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely

Patricia Watts

[Redacted signature area]

FTC, Office of the Secretary
Room 159
600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20580

March 8, 2012

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking - Comment, FTC File No.
241601

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule.

I am a college student working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet.

Telemarketing means jobs. These restrictions might cost the people who can least afford it the opportunity to work. Once again, I would like stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule.

Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
Minnie C. Whalen

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Fla. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

TELLING OFF TELEMARKETERS

3/27/2002

- 1 THE NUMBER SHOULD REMAIN ON THE "DO NOT CALL REGISTRY" UNTIL I REQUEST IT TO BE TAKEN OFF!
- 2 THE PERSON WHO~~SE~~ HAS HIS NAME LISTED IN THE PHONE BOOK OR A PERSON WHO HAS POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR THAT PERSON SHOULD BE ABLE TO PUT HIS PHONE NUMBER ON THE REGISTRY
- 3 HAVE AN 800 NUMBER YOU CAN CALL TO VERIFY IF YOU ARE LISTED OR NOT
- 4 REGISTRY SHOULD BE ALL OR NOTHING
- 5 IF YOU ARE ON THE REGISTRY & YOU WANT TO TALK TO ONE OF THE COMPANIES YOU CALL THEM.
- 6 TELL ME WHAT I CAN DO TO STOP THESE CALLS!

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY Room 159
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
600 PENNSYLVANIA AVE NW
WASHINGTON DC 20580

MY NAME IS

RONALD J WEISENSEELE

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] OHIO [REDACTED]

my PHONE NUMBER IS [REDACTED]