It is high time Spyware & all UNSOLICITED Commercial Emails were ILLEGAL in every country !!!

If a lawful business has any legal product or service which necessitates access to users Computers PERMISSION to do so MUST BE clearly requested [not buried in a mass of terms & conditions] with the PENALTIES , for failing to CLEARLY Request permission and/or inclusion of any terms & conditions which , in effect , allows other than the owner to make ANY alteration to their Computer configuration without specific approval by that owner of a change , EXTREMELY SEVERE !!!!

Just a simple Home User aged 78 [in 7 days] ... how about granting me my wish for a birthday gift to me & MILLIONS like me who are fed up with being exploited & having our enjoyment of the Internet ruined by greed & lack of consideration for others .

Sincerely..... Arthur Banks
