Ladies & Gentlemen of the FTC:

Makers and purveyors of spyware and adware are quick to say that a law sponsored by Representative Stephen Urquhart to protect the people restricts their rights but the computer owning and using masses of this country have a far greater right to be left alone by them.

We pay for our computers and we pay for our Internet access; therefore, they have no right to invade our privacy and damage our computers and computer programs.

Please cast aside the tremendous lobbying of the spyware/adware industry and make rulings that protect the American people at large.

Thank you,
