Utah	A branded title is issued when a vehicle has been salvaged by an insurance company and then sold to an owner that has repaired it and will be registering the vehicle. A branded title is also issued when a branded title from another jurisdiction is surrendered to the DMV. The same brand is shown on the Utah title. If the jurisdiction the vehicle is coming from uses different brands than Utah has available, the Utah brand that is equivalent to the out-of-state title will be selected. Utah prints the Brand Description and a Brand Message on each branded title. Brand Description and Brand Messages are as follows: Description - Rebuilt/Restored Message - Rebuilt and Restored to Operation. Description - Flood/Restored Message - In a Flood and Restored to Operation. Description - Reconstructed Message - Vehicle has been Materially Altered Description - Manufacturer Buyback Message - Manufacturer Buyback Nonconforming Vehicle Description - Salvage Vehicle Message - Salvage Vehicle not Suitable for Registration	A Certificate of Title bearing the appropriate brand is issued as proof of ownership on all branded vehicles. Upon registration a certificate of registration is issued. The brand does not print on the registration.	Utah Statute 41-1a-102 41-1a-514 41-1a-1004 41-1a-1006	Vicki Johnson 801-297-3513 vickijohnson@utah.gov
