IN THE MATTER OF

FABBIS, INC., ET AL., DOING BUSINESS AS ROCHESTER
PLUMBING AND HEATING CONTRACTORS

ORDER, OPINION, ETC., IN REGARD TO THE ALLEGED VIOLATION OF THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION AND THE TRUTH IN LENDING ACTS

Docket 8833. Complaint, Jan. 18, 1971—Decision Oct. 30, 1972.

Order requiring a Rochester, New York, firm engaged in the sale of plumbing and heating equipment and installation services to the public, among other things to cease violating the Truth in Lending Act by failing to provide each customer with a notice of the right to rescind prior to consummation of the transaction; making any physical changes in customer's property or performing any work on such property before expiration of the rescission period; and failing to make any other necessary disclosures as required by Regulation Z of the said Act.

COMPLAINT

Pursuant to the provisions of the Truth in Lending Act and the implementing regulation promulgated thereunder, and the Federal Trade Commission Act, and by virtue of the authority vested in it by said Acts, the Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that Fabbis, Inc., a corporation, doing business as Rochester Plumbing and Heating Contractors, and Richard J. Fabrizio and James J. Rebis, individually and as officers of said corporation, hereinafter referred to as respondents, have violated the provisions of said Acts and regulation, and it appearing to the Commission that a proceeding by it in respect thereof would be in the public interest, hereby issues its complaint stating its charges in that respect as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Respondent Fabbis, Inc., is a corporation organized, existing and doing business under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York, with its principal office and place of business
