Dear Mr. Williams:

The Division of Enforcement staff has conducted an investigation of your client, Rainbow Linens, Inc., with respect to the labeling and packaging of sheets and pillowcases manufactured and sold by the company. We have now closed that investigation. This action is not to be construed as a determination that a violation may not have occurred, just as the pendency of an investigation should not be construed as a determination that a violation has occurred. The Commission reserves the right to take such further action as the public interest may require.

Please be advised that under separate cover, I will be sending to your client, with a copy to you, a Synopsis of Federal Trade Commission Decisions Concerning Textile Fiber Products and a Synopsis of Federal Trade Commission Decisions Concerning Wool Products. Pursuant to Section 5(m)(1)(B) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(m)(1)(B), civil penalties may be imposed upon a business that engages in practices found to be unfair or deceptive in a prior litigated decision, when such business has received notice of the prior determination.

Sincerely yours,
