

IN THE MATTER OF
MSC SOFTWARE CORPORATION,
a corporation.

Docket No. 9299

ASSENTED-TO MOTION BY RAYTHEON COMPANY
TO EXTEND TIME TO MOVE FOR IN CAMERA TREATMENT OF PROPOSED TRIAL EXHIBITS

Raytheon Company ("Raytheon"), with the consent of Complaint Counsel and MSC Software Corporation ("MSC"), hereby moves for an order granting Raytheon additional time to move for in camera treatment of certain of its documents which have been designated by the parties as trial exhibits.

Pursuant to the Second Revised Scheduling Order of May 3, 2002, the parties were required to provide notice to non-parties of intent to offer their confidential documents into evidence at trial and non-parties were to file any motions for in camera treatment of proposed trial exhibits by June 11, 2002. By letters dated May 28, 29 and 31, 2002, Raytheon, a non-party, was notified that the parties intended to introduce at trial several designated documents previously produced by Raytheon and that the transcripts of investigational hearings of two Raytheon employees might be disclosed at trial.

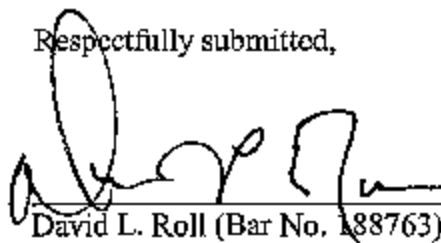

For the following reasons, Raytheon needs additional time to review the designated documents and transcripts, decide which warrant in camera treatment, and prepare and file an appropriate motion.

First, the Raytheon in-house attorney who had been dealing with Complaint Counsel suffered a heart attack some months ago and has been on medical leave since then. The letters addressed to him from Complaint Counsel notifying him of the designated exhibits and transcripts were not discovered by Raytheon until the end of the day on June 5, 2002.

Second, Raytheon was not able to produce documents responsive to MSC's discovery request until May 30, 2002 and it is still looking for additional responsive documents. As a consequence, MSC could not notify Raytheon of its proposed trial exhibits until May 31, 2002.

For these reasons, Raytheon, with the consent of Complaint Counsel and MSC, respectfully requests the Court to enter the attached proposed order granting Raytheon an extension through and including June 21, 2002 to move for in camera treatment of its documents pursuant to 16 C.F.R. § 3.45(b).

Respectfully submitted,
