4. The evidence set forth in the "Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission's 1 2 Memorandum of Points and Authorities Supporting the Application for a Noticed Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order" and in the accompanying exhibits, and all 3 other documents filed by the parties show that the Individual Defendants engaged 4 in a classic pyramid scheme in violation of Section 5 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 5 45(a). In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 65, good cause therefore exists for 6 issuing this preliminary injunction. Furthermore, to preserve the Court's ability to 7 grant effective relief, there is good cause for the Court to enter an order preserving 8 certain assets and to require that they provide an accounting of their assets and of 9 the monies that they have received as a result of their activities challenged in the 10 Complaint and expedited discovery. 11

S. Weighing the equities and considering the Commission's likelihood of ultimate success, a preliminary injunction with asset preservation, requiring an accounting and other equitable relief is in the public interest.

6. No provision of this Order shall be construed as an admission or denial that Defendant DeBoer has engaged in violations of the FTC Act. Factual stipulations herein are only for the purpose of entry of this stipulated preliminary injunction.

7. As an agency of the United States, no security is required of the Commission for the issuance of a preliminary injunction. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 65.
