and

II. MONETARY RELIEF

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

- A. Judgment in the amount of $600,000 (six hundred thousand dollars) (“Judgment Amount”) is hereby entered against Defendants, jointly and severally, as equitable monetary relief in favor of the Commission;
- B. Defendants shall pay the Judgment Amount in three installments. The first installment of $50,000 (fifty thousand dollars) shall be paid no later than five (5) days after the date of entry of this Order. The second installment of $250,000 (two hundred fifty thousand dollars) shall be paid no later than six (6) months after the date of entry of this Order. The third and final installment of $300,000 (three hundred thousand dollars) shall be paid no later than twelve (12) months after the date of entry of this Order. All payments to the Commission shall be made by certified check or other guaranteed funds payable to and delivered to the Commission, or by wire transfer in accordance with directions provided by the Commission, on or before the due dates given above;

C. To secure the payments required by Subsection II. B of this Order, Defendants hereby grant to the Commission a lien on and security interest in certain real property as described in Attachment A to this Order, together with all dwelling houses, other structures, improvements, appurtenances, hereditaments and other rights appertaining or belonging thereto (collectively referred to as the "Collateral"). Defendants represent and acknowledge that the Commission is relying on the material representations that one or more of the Defendants are the sole owners in fee simple of the Collateral, that title to the Collateral is marketable, and that the Collateral currently is not encumbered by any other lien, mortgage, deed of trust, assignment, pledge, security interest or other interest except as disclosed to the Commission in the financial statements dated May 21-24, 2008, and updated asset list sent to FTC counsel via email on July 9, 2009. Defendants represent that none of the encumbrances on the Collateral are in default. Defendants further agree that, as of the date on which they sign this Order, they shall refrain from transferring, converting, encumbering, selling, assigning, or otherwise disposing of the Collateral, except with the express prior written permission of counsel for the Commission. The individual Defendant hereby releases and waives any statutory, common law, or other homestead exemption that may apply to the Collateral and shall not declare and claim any homestead exemption in the Collateral;

D. Defendants shall cooperate fully with the Commission and be responsible for preparing, executing, and recording the necessary documents and doing whatever else the Commission deems necessary or desirable to perfect, evidence, and effectuate its liens and security interests granted herein. No later than five (5) days after the date on which the Commission authorizes staff to sign this Order, Defendants shall prepare, execute and deliver (at their expense) to the Commission mortgages or deeds of trust in form and substance satisfactory to the Commission (the "Security Documents") and take such other steps as the Commission may require to perfect, evidence, and effectuate its liens, security interests, and assignments and to carry out the purposes of this Order. The Commission shall refrain from recording the Security Documents until after the Court's entry of this Order. In the event that the Court does not enter this Order, within five (5) days after receipt of the Court's denial of this Order the FTC shall return the Security Documents to Defendants. Defendants shall be responsible for paying all costs and fees (including attorneys' fees and filing fees) required in connection with the liens and security interests granted herein, including all fees and costs related to the preparation, execution, delivery, filing, continuation, and termination of such liens and security interests and to carry out the purposes of this Order;

E. Upon Defendants' timely and complete satisfaction of the payments required by Subsection II. B of this Order, the Commission agrees to release the liens and security interests granted herein and Defendants shall be responsible for preparing and filing (at their expense) any termination or other statements reasonably required in connection therewith. The Commission shall also promptly release such liens and security interests to the extent necessary to permit the sale or encumbrance of part or all of the Collateral if the proceeds of such sale or financing are remitted directly to the Commission immediately upon closing of such sale or financing in partial or complete satisfaction of this Order and Defendants shall pay all fees and costs related to such release, including filing fees;

F. All funds paid pursuant to this Section II shall be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its agent to be used for equitable relief including, but not limited to, consumer restitution and any attendant expenses for the administration of any restitution fund. Defendants shall cooperate in identifying and locating consumers entitled to restitution under this Order. In the event that direct restitution to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or funds remain after restitution is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining funds for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to the practices alleged in the Complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited in the United States Treasury as disgorgement. Defendants shall have no right to challenge the Commission's choice of remedies under this Section. No portion of any payments or assets assigned under the judgment herein shall be deemed a payment of any fine, penalty, or punitive assessment;

G. In the event of default on the payments required to be made by this Section, the entire unpaid amount, together with interest computed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, accrued from the date of default until the date of payment, shall be immediately due and payable;

H. Defendants relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid to the fullest extent permitted by law. Defendants shall make no claim to or demand return of the funds, directly or indirectly, through counsel or otherwise; and

I. Defendants agree that the facts as alleged in the Complaint filed in this action shall be taken as true without further proof in any bankruptcy case or subsequent civil litigation pursued by the Commission to enforce its rights to any payment or money judgment pursuant to this Order, including, but not limited to, a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case. Defendants further stipulate and agree that the facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action pursuant to, and that this Order shall have collateral estoppel effect for purposes of, Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S. C. § 523(a)(2)(A).

III. CUSTOMER INFORMATION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, and their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons who are in active concert or participation with any of them who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, are permanently restrained and enjoined from:

A. Disclosing, using, or benefitting from customer information, including the name, address, telephone number, email address, social security number, other identifying information, or any data that enables access to a customer's account

(including a credit card, bank account, or other financial account), of any person which any Defendant obtained prior to entry of this Order in connection with the telemarketing of magazine subscriptions, other than collecting on open subscription accounts; and

B. Failing to dispose of such customer information in all forms in their possession, custody, or control within thirty (30) days after entry of this Order, except that information relating to open subscription accounts shall be disposed of within thirty (30) days of the end of the subscription period. Disposal shall be by means that protect against unauthorized access to the customer information, such as by burning, pulverizing, or shredding any papers, and by erasing or destroying any electronic media, to ensure that the customer information cannot practicably be read or reconstructed.

Provided, however, that customer information need not be disposed of, and may be disclosed, to the extent requested by a government agency or required by a law, regulation, or court order.

IV. COMPLIANCE MONITORING

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, for the purpose of monitoring and investigating compliance with any provision of this Order:

A. Within ten (10) days of receipt of written notice from a representative of the Commission, Defendants each shall submit additional written reports that are true and accurate and sworn to under penalty of perjury; produce documents or recordings for inspection and copying; appear for deposition; and provide entry during normal business hours to any business location in such Defendant's possession or direct or indirect control to inspect the business operation;

B. In addition, the Commission is authorized to use all other lawful means, including, but not limited to:

1. Obtaining discovery from any person, without further leave of court, using the procedures prescribed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 30, 31, 33, 34, 36, 45, and 69; and
2. Having its representatives pose as consumers and suppliers to Defendants, their employees, or any other entity managed or controlled in whole or in part by any Defendant, without the necessity of identification or prior notice; and

C. Defendants each shall permit representatives of the Commission to interview any employer, consultant, independent contractor, representative, agent, or employee who has agreed to such an interview, relating in any way to any conduct subject to this Order. The person interviewed may have counsel present.

Provided, however, that nothing in this Order shall limit the Commission's lawful use of compulsory process, pursuant to Sections 9 and 20 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 49, 57b-1, to obtain any documentary material, tangible things, testimony, or information relevant to unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce (within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. § 45(a)(1)).

(30) days prior to the date such action is to take place, such Defendant shall notify the Commission as soon as is practicable after obtaining such knowledge;

B. One hundred eighty (180) days after the date of entry of this Order and annually thereafter for a period of five (5) years, Defendants each shall provide a written report to the FTC that is true and accurate and sworn to under penalty of perjury, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied and are complying with this Order.
