MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
TO MOVE TO QUASH THIRD PARTY SUBPOENAS

Non-parties Kelley Blue Book Co., Inc. (“KBB”) and John Heffinger (collectively “Movants”), hereby move, pursuant to Rule 4.3(b) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.3(b), for an order extending Movants’ time to move to quash or otherwise respond to the subpoenas duces tecum and ad testificandum served upon KBB and upon its employee John Heffinger¹ by counsel for respondent CCC Holdings, Inc. on February 27, 2009. Movants respectfully request an extension of five days, to and including Monday, March 15, 2009, of its time to move to quash the subpoenas.

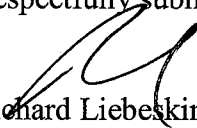

Movants have been attempting to negotiate in good faith with respondent’s counsel to narrow the scope of the subpoena duces tecum and to identify a mutually agreeable date for deposition of Mr. Heffinger. Movants and respondent have not yet reached agreement. KBB has already produced documents to respondents responsive to some of the current requests in response to subpoenas in the district court proceeding and had served objections to respondents’ remaining requests (which address the same subject matter as in the current subpoena) in ¹ KBB does not by this motion intend to waive any objections it may have to service on Mr. Heffinger.

December 2008. Rather than resolve these issues at the time, respondents waited until February 28, 2008, to serve burdensome demands on non-party Movants, with very abbreviated response times.

Movants do not believe that the grant of this motion would prejudice any party.

Respectfully submitted,
