DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Order, the following definitions shall apply:

1. “Corporate Defendant” means Trident Consulting Partners LLC and its successors and assigns.
2. “Defendants” means all of the named defendants in this action, individually, collectively, or in any combination.
3. “Erikson Defendants” means Individual Defendant Erikson and the Corporate Defendant, individually, collectively, or in any combination.
4. “Healthcare-Related Products” means any program, membership, card, product, insurance policy, or other good or service, that offers, or purports to offer, insurance, discounts, savings, or benefits on healthcare, or access to insurance, discounts, savings, or

5. “Individual Defendant” means Glenn Erikson.
6. “Person” means a natural person, organization, or other legal entity, including a corporation, partnership, proprietorship, association, cooperative, government or governmental subdivision or agency, or any other group or combination acting as an entity.

For purposes of this definition, an account includes any financial account or credit or other arrangement that allows a person to draw checks that are payable by, through, or at a bank. For purposes of this definition, a Remotely Created Check originates as a paper-based transaction, but can be processed subsequently through electronic means (such as through check imaging or scanning) or through non-electronic means. A Remotely Created Check is often also referred to as an “RCC,” “demand draft,” “bank draft,” “bank check,” or “preauthorized draft.”

For purposes of this definition, an account includes any financial account or credit or other arrangement that allows checks, payment instructions, or orders to be drawn against it that are payable by, through, or at a bank. For purposes of this definition, unlike a Remotely Created Check, a Remotely Created Payment Order does not originate as a paper-based

- C. Upon the asset transfer set forth in Subsection VI.B, the remainder of the judgment is suspended, subject to the Subsections below.
- D. The Commission's agreement to the suspension of part of the judgment is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of the Erikson Defendants' sworn financial representations and related documents (collectively, "financial representations") submitted to the Commission, namely:

1. the financial statements of Individual Defendant Erikson, dated October 18, 2014, including all attachments and supplemental materials;

F. If the suspension of the judgment is lifted, the judgment becomes immediately due in the amount specified in Subsection VI.A above (which the parties stipulate only for purposes of this Section represents the consumer injury alleged in the Complaint), less any payment previously made pursuant to this Section, plus interest computed from the date of entry of this Order.

I. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the Commission pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and this Order will have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

J. K. All money paid to the Commission pursuant to this Order may be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its designee to be used for equitable relief, including consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. If a representative of the Commission decides that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or money remains after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining money for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendants' practices alleged in the Complaint. Any money not used for such equitable relief is to be deposited to the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Defendants have no right to challenge any actions the Commission or its representatives may take pursuant to this Subsection.
