| 10 | Plaintiff, the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC" or "Commission"), for its |
| 11 | Complaint alleges: |
| 12 | 1. The FTC brings this action under Sections 13(b) and 19 of the Federal |
| 13 | Trade Commission Act ("FTC Act"), 15 U.S.C. §§ 53(b) and 57b, and the |
| 14 | Telemarketing and Consumer Fraud and Abuse Prevention Act ("Telemarketing |
| 15 | Act"), 15 U.S.C. §§ 6101–6108, to obtain temporary, preliminary, and permanent |
| 16 | injunctive relief, rescission or reformation of contracts, restitution, the refund of |
| 17 | monies paid, disgorgement of ill-gotten monies, and other equitable relief for |
| 18 | Defendants' acts or practices in violation of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. |
| 19 | § 45(a), and the FTC's Telemarketing Sales Rule ("TSR"), 16 C.F.R. pt. 310, in |
| 20 | connection with Defendants' ongoing deceptive marketing and sale of student loan |
| 21 | debt relief services. |
| 22 | 2. Since at least April 2014, Defendants have operated an unlawful debt |
| 23 | relief scheme that preys on consumers with student loan debt. Defendants promise |
| 24 | consumers that, in exchange for the payment of an upfront fee and subsequent |
| 25 | monthly fees, Defendants will reduce consumers' monthly student loan payments |
| 26 | or eliminate all, or a substantial portion of, their federal student loan debt by |
| 27 | enrolling consumers in student loan forgiveness, consolidation, or repayment | consumers' loan balances or monthly loan payments. Defendants also break their promises that they will apply consumers' monthly fee payments to Defendants toward the consumers' loans and assume responsibility for servicing those loans, leaving consumers on the hook for adverse consequences like increased interest and delinquency. As a result, consumers who already struggle to pay their student loans lose even more money to Defendants. Since the beginning of their scheme, Defendants have pocketed at least $43 million in revenues from consumers.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1337(a), and 1345.

4. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1), (b)(2), (c)(1), (c)(2), and (d), and 15 U.S.C. § 53(b).

PLAINTIFF

14 5. The FTC is an independent agency of the United States government
15 created by statute. 15 U.S.C. §§ 41–58. The FTC enforces Section 5(a) of the FTC 16 Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), which prohibits unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or 17 affecting commerce. The FTC also enforces the Telemarketing Act, 15 U.S.C. §§
18 6101–6108. Pursuant to the Telemarketing Act, the FTC promulgated and enforces
19 the TSR, 16 C.F.R. pt. 310, which prohibits deceptive or abusive telemarketing acts 20 or practices.

6. The FTC is authorized to initiate federal district court proceedings, by its own attorneys, to enjoin violations of the FTC Act and the TSR, and to secure such equitable relief as may be appropriate in each case, including rescission or reformation of contracts, restitution, the refund of monies paid, and the disgorgement of ill-gotten monies. 15 U.S.C. §§ 53(b), 57b, and 6102(c).

COMMERCE

At all times material to this Complaint, Defendants have maintained a 23. 16 substantial course of trade in or affecting commerce, as "commerce" is defined in 17 18 Section 4 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 44.

DEFENDANTS' DECEPTIVE STUDENT LOAN DEBT RELIEF SCHEME Background on Student Loan Forgiveness and Repayment Programs

21 24. Student loan debt is the second largest class of consumer debt in the United States; more than 42 million Americans collectively owe nearly $1.5 trillion 22 23 in student loan debt. The student loan market shows elevated levels of distress, such as delinquency and default, relative to other types of consumer debt. 24

25 25. To address this mounting level of distressed debt, the Department of Education ("ED") and state government agencies administer a limited number of 26 student loan forgiveness and discharge programs. Most consumers, however, are 27 28 not eligible for these programs because of strict eligibility requirements. For example, one program requires the consumer to demonstrate a total and permanent 2 disability; another applies only to consumers whose school closed while the consumer was still enrolled. A third program, the Borrower Defense to Repayment ("BDR"), may provide a loan discharge if the school, through an act or omission, 4 violated state law directly related to the borrower's federal student loan or to the educational services for which the loan was provided.

26. Other forgiveness programs require working in certain professions for a period of years. Teacher Loan Forgiveness applies to teachers who have worked full-time for five years in a low-income elementary or secondary school or educational service agency. Public Service Loan Forgiveness ("PSLF") applies to 10 employees of governmental units or non-profit organizations who make timely 11 monthly payments for a period of ten years while employed in the public sector. 12

13 27. The federal government also offers loan forgiveness through incomedriven repayment ("IDR") programs that enable borrowers to reduce their monthly 14 payments and have portions of their loans forgiven. IDR programs allow eligible 15 borrowers to limit their monthly payments based on a percentage of their 16 discretionary monthly income. To remain in an IDR program, borrowers must 17 18 recertify their income and family size annually. Obtaining forgiveness through IDR programs requires a minimum of 20 or 25 years of qualifying payments. 19

Because a borrower's income is likely to fluctuate over the life of the 20 28. loan, monthly payments under the IDR programs can vary considerably from year 21 to year. If a borrower's income were to increase over the repayment period, for 22 example, the monthly payment amount could correspondingly increase to the point 23 where those payments would pay off the loan before any amount could be forgiven 24 25 at the end of the repayment term.

Consumers can apply for BDR, PSLF, IDR, and other loan repayment 26 29. 27 and forgiveness or discharge programs through ED or their student loan servicers 28 at no cost; these programs do not require the assistance of a third-party company or payment of application fees.

30. ED will grant forbearance or deferment while processing applications for an alternative repayment plan, and in some cases of hardship. During forbearance, and, under some circumstances, during deferment, unpaid interest is added to the principal balance.

Defendants' Deceptive Marketing of Student Loan Debt Relief Services

31. Defendants promise to enroll consumers in student loan forgiveness, consolidation, and repayment programs to reduce or eliminate their monthly payments and principal balances. Defendants make these claims in radio and 10 television advertisements, on the Internet, and in telemarketing calls. In some 11 instances, in response to the Defendants' marketing materials, consumers call 12 13 Defendants for more information. In other instances, Defendants' telemarketers, or third-party telemarketers working on Defendants' behalf, make unsolicited 14 15 outbound calls to consumers to offer Defendants' services and convince consumers to sign up with Defendants. 16

17 32. In both inbound and outbound telemarketing calls, and in public-18 facing statements, Defendants make at least four types of deceptive claims: (1) consumers who purchase Defendants' services will have their monthly student loan 19 payments reduced to a lower, specific amount or have their loan balances forgiven 20 21 in whole or in part; (2) most or all of consumers' monthly fee payments to Defendants will be applied toward consumers' student loans; (3) Defendants will 22 assume responsibility for servicing consumers' student loans; and (4) Defendants 23 are affiliated or work directly with ED or one of ED's authorized loan servicers. 24

Defendants' Deceptive Payment Reduction Representations

33. Defendants' telemarketers inform consumers that Defendants can 26 enroll them in programs such as BDR, PSLF, or IDR to lower their monthly 27 28 payments or loan balances. Defendants' representatives further tell consumers that Defendants will obtain a reduction in the consumer's monthly loan payment, or save the consumer a specific amount of money, if the consumer purchases Defendants' services. In some instances, Defendants promise consumers that their entire loan balances will be forgiven after the consumer makes lower monthly payments for a specified period of time, anywhere from three to ten years.

9

10

34. In fact, Defendants fail to deliver the benefits they promise.
Consumers consistently report that Defendants do not reduce consumers' monthly loan payments or cause loan balances to be forgiven. Instead, Defendants often merely contact a consumer's loan servicer to place the consumer's loans into temporary forbearance or deferment status, without the consumer's authorization or knowledge.

35. 12 During forbearance, borrowers are temporarily relieved of the 13 obligation to make monthly payments, but interest continues to accrue on their loans and is added to the principal balance. During deferment, borrowers are 14 15 relieved of making monthly payments and of paying interest on some federal loans, but must pay interest on others. Thus, if a consumer's loan is placed into 16 17 forbearance or deferment status, the consumer's loan balance increases while 18 Defendants continue to collect the consumer's monthly fees. In numerous 19 instances, consumers end up owing substantially more on their student loans after signing up and paying for Defendants' services. 20

Even when Defendants enroll consumers in programs such as BDR, 21 36. PSLF, or IDR, or consolidate consumers' loans, such consumers do not realize the 22 23 savings or reduction in payments that Defendants promise. Furthermore, on IDR applications, Defendants frequently misstate borrowers' family sizes or indicate 24 25 that borrowers do not have access to their spouses' income, even though they share bank accounts and file taxes jointly. Defendants do so in an effort to obtain for 26 borrowers a larger reduction in payments than the borrowers would otherwise 27 qualify for under ED regulations. 28

Defendants' Payment and Servicing Misrepresentations

37. Defendants frequently represent that they will apply the monthly fees that consumers pay Defendants towards consumers' student loan debt. In numerous instances, however, Defendants do not send such payments to consumers' student loan servicers. Instead, Defendants collect and retain consumers' payments to enrich themselves.

7 38. Furthermore, Defendants frequently represent that they will assume 8 responsibility for servicing consumers' student loans, and that consumers should 9 stop paying their loan servicers and instead make their loan payments to 10 Defendants. Defendants, however, are not federal loan servicers and, despite their representations to consumers, have not taken over or purchased consumers' student 11 loans. Defendants do not, in fact, service consumers' student loans or make 12 13 payments on their behalves. As a result, consumers' loan balances increase with accumulated interest. In addition, many consumers' loans become delinquent, and 14 15 some consumers have been placed in default status and their income tax refunds have been garnished. 16

Defendants' Government Affiliation Misrepresentations

39. On their telemarketing calls with consumers, Defendants state or imply that they are affiliated, or work directly, with ED or its authorized servicers.
For example, Defendants have stated that because they have a "better, more direct relationship" with ED than do its servicers, they can secure better repayment terms than consumers could obtain through their servicers. Defendants have also directly confirmed, in response to consumers' questions, that they work directly with ED.

40. In fact, Defendants' representations in Paragraph 39 are false.
Defendants are not affiliated with, and do not work directly with, ED or one of ED's authorized loan servicers. Defendants themselves are not authorized loan servicers or affiliated with or approved by ED in any manner.

28

Materiality

41. Based on Defendants' representations, consumers believe that Defendants will enroll them in programs that will reduce their monthly loan payments or loan balances; that Defendants will take responsibility for servicing the consumers' student loans and obtain for the consumers reductions in loan payments or balances; that Defendants will apply consumers' monthly fee payments to Defendants toward the consumers' loan balances; and that Defendants are affiliated, or work directly, with ED or its authorized loan servicers. Relying on these representations, consumers purchase the services that Defendants offer.

Defendants' Upfront and Monthly Fees

42. Defendants charge an upfront fee when consumers agree to their services. These upfront fees range from approximately $500 to as high as $1,800.

13 Defendants require that consumers pay at least part of the upfront fee 43. before they perform any work on consumers' behalf. As Ms. Howe admitted in 14 15 answering a complaint about 1 file.org submitted to the BBB, "We do NOT start 16 any work on a file until the first payment is made by the client." Similarly, Defendants' standard-form contract states: "Following receipt of all necessary 17 18 information from Client and the first payment has been made, [Defendants'] Services will commence." Sometimes, when consumers are unable to pay the full 19 20 upfront fee, Defendants offer to break it into monthly installments or to allow a postdated payment. In at least one instance, Defendants have also worked with a 21 22 third-party company to offer a separate loan to cover the upfront fee-thereby piling another loan onto a consumer's existing student loans. 23

44. In addition to the upfront fee, Defendants charge a monthly fee for their purported services, typically ranging from $19 to $49.

26

Defendants' Tactics to Perpetuate Their Unlawful Scheme

27 45. Defendants employ additional deceptive tactics to string consumers 28 along and prevent consumers from learning of Defendants' deception. For example, Defendants induce consumers to sign a power of attorney form during the 1 2 signup process. Often relying on the power of attorney form, Defendants then 3 change consumers' login names and passwords on the federal student aid website, and also change the email addresses consumers have registered with their loan 4 5 servicers to domains associated with Defendants. As a result, consumers stop receiving correspondence from their loan servicers and ED and temporarily lose 6 7 access to their own loan information. Consumers often discover that they have 8 been scammed only after talking to their actual loan servicer and realizing that 9 Defendants have been making no payments to the servicer, while pocketing consumers' payments for themselves. When consumers ask for their money back, 10 Defendants often refuse to issue full refunds, and will only issue a partial refund or 11 12 no refund at all.

13 46. Defendants also require consumers to sign "service agreements" that are substantially identical in content and format. These standard-form contracts 14 contain terms that were not discussed with consumers during the Defendants' sales 15 pitches, or that directly contradict Defendants' marketing materials or statements 16 made to consumers during their calls with Defendants' representatives. For 17 18 example, although Defendants represent in telemarketing calls that they are affiliated with ED, the form contract states, in the middle of dense text, that 19 Defendants are not affiliated with a government agency. 20

Consumers are often unable to spot these contradictions because 21 47. Defendants rush consumers through the process of signing up by creating a sense 22 of urgency. Defendants often require consumers to electronically sign forms during 23 their phone call with Defendants, without affording consumers adequate time to 24 25 consider the forms' language. In some cases, Defendants require consumers to review and sign Defendants' multi-page service agreement on consumers' mobile 26 27 phones. The electronic forms use a hard-to-read font and jump from one signature line to another without a meaningful opportunity for review. 28

THE FTC ACT

49. Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), prohibits "unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce."

50. Misrepresentations or deceptive omissions of material fact constitute deceptive acts or practices prohibited by Section 5(a) of the FTC Act.

VIOLATIONS OF THE FTC ACT

Count I

Deceptive Student Loan Debt Relief Representations

13 51. In numerous instances in connection with the advertising, marketing, 14 promotion, offering for sale, or sale of student loan debt relief services, Defendants 15 represent, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication, that:

a. consumers who purchase Defendants' services generally will have their monthly payments reduced or their loan balances forgiven in whole or in part;

b. most or all of consumers' monthly fee payments to Defendants will be applied toward consumers' student loans;

c. Defendants will assume responsibility for servicing consumers' student loans; and

d. Defendants are affiliated or work directly with ED or one of ED's authorized loan servicers.

52. In truth and in fact, in numerous instances in which Defendants make the representations set forth in paragraph 51 of this Complaint, such representations are false or not substantiated at the time Defendants make them.

53. Therefore, Defendants' representations as set forth in paragraph 51 of this Complaint are false or misleading and constitute deceptive acts or practices in violation of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a).

THE TELEMARKETING SALES RULE

54. In 1994, Congress directed the FTC to prescribe rules prohibiting abusive and deceptive telemarketing acts or practices pursuant to the Telemarketing Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 6101–6108. The FTC adopted the original TSR in 1995, extensively amended it in 2003, and amended certain provisions thereafter.
16 C.F.R. pt. 310.

55. Defendants are "seller[s]" or "telemarketer[s]" engaged in 10 "telemarketing" as defined by the TSR, 16 C.F.R. § 310.2(dd), (ff), and (gg). A 11 12 "seller" means any person who, in connection with a telemarketing transaction, 13 provides, offers to provide, or arranges for others to provide goods or services to the customer in exchange for consideration. 16 C.F.R. § 310.2(dd). A 14 15 "telemarketer" means any person who, in connection with telemarketing, initiates or receives telephone calls to or from a customer or donor. 16 C.F.R. § 310.2(ff). 16 17 "Telemarketing" means a plan, program, or campaign which is conducted to induce the purchase of goods or services or a charitable contribution, by use of one or 18 more telephones and which involves more than one interstate telephone call. 16 19 C.F.R. § 310.2(gg). 20

56. Defendants are sellers or telemarketers of "debt relief services" as defined by the TSR, 16 C.F.R. § 310.2(o). Under the TSR, a "debt relief service" means any program or service represented, directly or by implication, to renegotiate, settle, or in any way alter the terms of payment or other terms of the debt between a person and one or more unsecured creditors or debt collectors, including, but not limited to, a reduction in the balance, interest rate, or fees owed by a person to an unsecured creditor or debt collector. 16 C.F.R. § 310.2(o).

57. The TSR prohibits sellers and telemarketers from requesting or receiving payment of any fees or consideration for any debt relief service until and unless:

(A) The seller or telemarketer has renegotiated, settled, reduced, or otherwise altered the terms of at least one debt pursuant to a settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other such valid contractual agreement executed by the customer;

(B) The customer has made at least one payment pursuant to that settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other valid contractual agreement between the customer and the creditor or debt collector; and

(C) To the extent that debts enrolled in a service are renegotiated, settled, reduced, or otherwise altered individually, the fee or consideration either:

13 (1) Bears the same proportional relationship to the total fee for renegotiating, settling, reducing, or altering the terms of the entire 14 debt balance as the individual debt amount bears to the entire debt 15 amount. The individual debt amount and the entire debt amount are 16 17 those owed at the time the debt was enrolled in the service; or (2) Is a percentage of the amount saved as a result of the 18 19 renegotiation, settlement, reduction, or alteration. The percentage 20 charged cannot change from one individual debt to another. The amount saved is the difference between the amount owed at the time 21 the debt was enrolled in the service and the amount actually paid to 22 23 satisfy the debt.

58. The TSR prohibits sellers and telemarketers from misrepresenting, directly or by implication, a seller's or telemarketer's affiliation with, or endorsement or sponsorship by, any person or government entity. 16 C.F.R. § 310.3(a)(2)(vii).

59. The TSR prohibits sellers and telemarketers from misrepresenting, directly or by implication, any material aspect of any debt relief service, including, but not limited to, the amount of money or the percentage of the debt amount that a customer may save by using the service. 16 C.F.R. \S 310.3(a)(2)(x).

60. Pursuant to Section 3(c) of the Telemarketing Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6102(c), and Section 18(d)(3) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 57a(d)(3), a violation of the TSR constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice in or affecting commerce, in violation of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a).

VIOLATIONS OF THE TELEMARKETING SALES RULE Count II

Advance Fee for Debt Relief Services

12 In numerous instances, in connection with the telemarketing of 61. student loan debt relief services, Defendants request or receive payment of a fee or consideration for debt relief services before: 14

Defendants have renegotiated, settled, reduced, or otherwise a. altered the terms of at least one debt pursuant to a settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other such valid contractual agreement executed by the customer; and

b. The customer has made at least one payment pursuant to that settlement agreement, debt management plan, or other valid contractual agreement between the customer and the creditor.

62. Defendants' acts or practices, as described in paragraph 61 of this Complaint, violate Section 310.4(a)(5)(i) of the TSR, 16 C.F.R. § 310.4(a)(5)(i).

Count IV

Material Debt Relief Misrepresentations

65. In numerous instances, in connection with the telemarketing of student loan debt relief services, Defendants misrepresent, directly or indirectly, 10 expressly or by implication, material aspects of their debt relief services, including 11 that:

> consumers who purchase Defendants' services generally will a. have their monthly payments reduced or their loan balances forgiven in whole or in part;

b. most or all of consumers' monthly fee payments to Defendants will be applied toward consumers' student loans; and

c. Defendants will assume responsibility for servicing consumers' student loans.

66. Defendants' acts and practices, as described in paragraph 65 of this Complaint, violate Section 310.3(a)(2)(x) of the TSR, 16 C.F.R. § 310.3(a)(2)(x).

Count V

Relief Defendant

23 67. Relief Defendant MJ Wealth Solutions has received, directly or indirectly, funds and other assets from Defendants that are traceable to funds 24 obtained from Defendants' customers through the deceptive acts or practices 25 26 described herein.

27 68. Relief Defendant is not a bona fide purchaser with legal and equitable 28 title to Defendants' customers' funds and other assets, and Relief Defendant will be unjustly enriched if it is not required to disgorge the funds or the value of the benefit it received as a result of Defendants' deceptive acts or practices.

69. By reason of the foregoing, Relief Defendant holds funds and assets in constructive trust for the benefit of Defendants' customers.

CONSUMER INJURY

70. Consumers are suffering, have suffered, and will continue to suffer substantial injury as a result of Defendants' violations of the FTC Act and the TSR. In addition, Defendants have been unjustly enriched as a result of their unlawful acts or practices. Absent injunctive relief by this Court, Defendants are likely to continue to injure consumers, reap unjust enrichment, and harm the public interest.

THIS COURT'S POWER TO GRANT RELIEF

12 71. Section 13(b) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), empowers this Court
13 to grant injunctive and such other relief as the Court may deem appropriate to halt 14 and redress violations of any provision of law enforced by the FTC. This Court, in 15 the exercise of its equitable jurisdiction, may award ancillary relief, including 16 rescission or reformation of contracts, restitution, the refund of monies paid, and 17 the disgorgement of ill-gotten monies, to prevent and remedy any violation of any 18 provision of law enforced by the FTC.

19 72. Section 19 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 57b, and Section 6(b) of the 20 Telemarketing Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6105(b), authorize this Court to grant such relief as 21 the Court finds necessary to redress injury to consumers resulting from 22 Defendants' violations of the TSR, including the rescission or reformation of 23 contracts, and the refund of money.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, Plaintiff FTC, pursuant to Sections 13(b) and 19 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 53(b) and 57b, Section 6(b) of the Telemarketing Act, 15 U.S.C. §
6105(b), and the Court's own equitable powers, requests that the Court:

A. Award Plaintiff such preliminary injunctive and ancillary relief as may be necessary to avert the likelihood of consumer injury during the pendency of this action and to preserve the possibility of effective final relief, including a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction, an order freezing assets, appointment of a receiver, immediate access to premises, an evidence preservation order, and expedited discovery;

B. Enter a permanent injunction to prevent future violations of the FTCAct and the TSR;

9 C. Award such relief as the Court finds necessary to redress injury to 10 consumers resulting from Defendants' violations of the FTC Act and the TSR, 11 including rescission or reformation of contracts, restitution, the refund of monies 12 paid, and the disgorgement of ill-gotten monies;

D. Enter an order requiring Relief Defendant to disgorge all funds and assets, or the value of the benefit it received from the funds and assets, which are traceable to Defendants' deceptive acts or practices; and 16 E. Award Plaintiff the costs of bringing this action, as well as such other 17 and additional relief as the Court may determine to be just and proper.
