H. Upon the asset transfers and completion of other obligations specified in Subsections III.B-G above, the remainder of the judgment is suspended, subject to the Subsections below.

I. The Commission's agreement to the suspension of part of the judgment is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Stipulating Defendants' sworn financial statements and related documents (collectively, “financial representations”) submitted to the Commission, namely:

1. the Financial Statement of Individual Defendant Rajiv Chhatwal signed on October 20, 2016, including the attachments and the following email correspondence between counsel for Stipulating Defendants and FTC counsel:

J. The suspension of the judgment will be lifted as to any Defendant if, upon motion by the Commission, the Court finds that Defendant failed to disclose any material asset, materially misstated the value of any asset, or made any other material misstatement or omission in the financial representations identified above.

K. If the suspension of the judgment is lifted, the judgment becomes immediately due as to that Defendant in the amount specified in Subsection III.A above (which the parties stipulate only for purposes of this Section represents the consumer injury alleged in the Complaint), less any payment previously made pursuant to this Section, plus interest computed from the date of entry of this Order.

SECTION IV: ADDITIONAL MONETARY PROVISIONS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. Stipulating Defendants relinquish dominion and all legal and equitable right, title, and interest in all assets transferred and liquidated pursuant to this Order and may not seek the return of any assets.

B. The facts alleged in the Complaint will be taken as true, without further proof, in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of the Commission, including in a proceeding to enforce their rights to any payment or monetary judgment pursuant to this Order, such as a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

C. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the Commission pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and this Order will have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

D. Stipulating Defendants acknowledge that their Taxpayer Identification Numbers (Social Security Numbers or Employer Identification Numbers), which such Defendants previously submitted to the Commission, may be used for collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order, in accordance with 31 U.S.C. §7701.

E. Stipulating Individual Defendant shall deliver to counsel for the Commission and the Receiver, copies of signed and completed state, local and federal tax returns for the tax year

c. Upon the Court's approval of the Receiver's application for compensation and expenses with respect to Stipulating Individual Defendant, distribute to the Commission any remaining liquid assets, less tax reserves specified in Subsection III.F above, and less any mandatory tax penalties that the administrators of the funds listed in III.E. fail to deduct, which the Receiver must pay to the Internal Revenue Service on the Stipulating Individual Defendant's behalf; and

2. Within one hundred eighty (180) days after entry of this Order:

a. Complete, as necessary, the sale of the real property located at 559 Graeser Road, St. Louis, Missouri 63141, as specified in Subsection III.G above. Provided however, the Receiver may, if reasonably necessary, seek written agreement with Commission staff for additional time for the completion of such sale;

b. Prepare and file with the Court an application for compensation and expenses associated with the Receiver's sale of the real property, as specified in Subsection III.G above; and

c. Upon the Court's approval of the Receiver's application for compensation and expenses with respect to Stipulating Individual Defendant, distribute to the Commission any remaining liquid assets, less tax reserves specified in Subsection III.G above; and

3. Within ten (10) days of Stipulating Individual Defendant's delivery of tax returns pursuant to Subsection IV.E above, distribute to the Commission any undistributed tax reserves.

G. All money paid to the Commission pursuant to this Order may be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its designee on behalf of the Commission. This fund shall be used for equitable relief, including consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. If a representative of the Commission decides that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or money remains after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining money for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendants' practices alleged in the Complaint. Any money not used for such equitable relief is to be deposited to the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Defendants have no right to challenge any actions the Commission or its representatives may take pursuant to this Subsection.
