SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT OF COUNSEL PURSUANT TO 16 C.F.R. § 3.22(f)

EnerSys respectfully submits this Supplemental Statement of Counsel pursuant to 16 C.F.R. § 3.22(f) in support of its motion to extend time to produce documents filed January 20, 2009.

Counsel for the moving party, Neil C. Schur, Esquire, has conferred with Complaint Counsel. Complaint Counsel has no objection to allowing EnerSys an additional ten days to produce the documents responsive to Respondent’s subpoena duces tecum, provided that the trial date is not moved and all intermediate deadlines (e.g., exhibit list, notice of intent to disclose confidential information) are modified with regard to EnerSys documents and deposition testimony. Complaint Counsel has reviewed this statement and has authorized the undersigned to represent to the Court that Complaint Counsel does not intend to file a response to EnerSys’ pending motion.

Counsel for the moving party, Neil C. Schur, Esquire, has attempted to confer further with counsel for Respondent, Eric Welsh, Esquire, but has been unable to reach Mr. Welsh. Mr. Schur left voicemail messages for Mr. Welsh on January 20 and 22, 2009.

Dated: January 22, 2009
