FINAL JUDGMENT AS TO DEFENDANTS PETER J. PORCELLI, II,
SAFE HARBOUR FOUNDATION OF FLORIDA, INC.,

Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission ("Commission" or "FTC") has filed a Complaint for Injunctive and Other Equitable Relief ("Complaint") against Defendants Safe Harbour Foundation of Florida, Inc., Silverstone Lending, LLC, Silverstone Financial LLC, Keystone Financial, LLC, Southeast Advertising, Inc., MT25 LLC, Peter J. Porcelli, II, Bonnie A. Harris, and Christopher Tomasulo, for acts and practices in connection with a mortgage foreclosure rescue business. The Complaint alleges that deceptive acts and practices associated with that business violated the Truth in Lending Act ("TILA"), 15 U.S.C. §§ 1601-1666j (including the Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act of 1994 ("HOEPA"), 15 U.S.C. § 1639), an implementing regulation of TILA entitled Regulation Z, 12 C.F.R. Part 226, and Section 5(a) of the Federal Trade Commission Act ("FTC Act"), 15 U.S.C. § 45(a).

In conjunction with the filing of its Complaint, the Commission also moved this Court for entry of an order holding certain Defendants in contempt of the Order for Permanent Injunction with Monetary Judgment and Other Relief Against Bay Area Business Council, Inc., Bay Area Business Council Customer Service Corp., American Leisure Card Corp., Bay Memberships, Inc., Sr. Marketing Consultants, Inc., Special Technologies, Inc., Peter J. Porcelli, II, and Bonnie A. Harris (the "Porcelli/Harris Order"), entered by this Court on April 14, 2004, and the Stipulated Final Judgment and Order for Permanent Injunction and Other Equitable Relief Against Defendant Christopher Tomasulo (the "Tomasulo Order"), entered by this Court on February 2, 2005, in connection with the case FTC v. Bay Area Business Council, Inc., et al., No. 02 C 5762.

The Commission and Defendants Peter J. Porcelli, II, Safe Harbour Foundation of Florida, Inc., Silverstone Lending, LLC, and Silverstone Financial LLC (the "Porcelli Defendants"), have stipulated to the entry of the following Stipulated Order For Permanent Injunction And Final Judgment As To Defendants Peter J. Porcelli, II, Safe Harbour Foundation of Florida, Inc., Silverstone Lending, LLC, and Silverstone Financial LLC ("Order") in settlement of the Commission's Complaint and contempt action.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and the Porcelli Defendants, having requested the Court to enter this Order, and the Court having considered the Order and being fully advised in the premises, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

FINDINGS

1. The Complaint is an action by the Commission instituted under Section 13(b) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 53(b). Pursuant to this section of the FTC Act, the Commission has the authority to seek the relief contained herein.

2. The Commission's Complaint states a claim upon which relief may be granted against the Porcelli Defendants under Sections 5(a) and 13(b) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 45(a) and 53(b), and Section 108(c) of the Truth in Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1607(c).

3. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case and contempt action and the parties hereto. Venue in the Northern District of Illinois is proper. The Porcelli Defendants have been properly served with process.

4. The alleged activities of the Defendants are in or affecting commerce, as defined in Section 4 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 44.

5. The Porcelli Defendants, without admitting the allegations set forth in the Commission's Complaint, agree to entry of this stipulated Order.

6. The Porcelli Defendants waive all rights to seek judicial review or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of this Order. The Porcelli Defendants further waive and release any claims they may have against the Commission, its employees, representatives, or agents.

7. The Porcelli Defendants agree that this Order does not entitle them to seek or obtain attorney's fees as prevailing parties under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, as amended; and the Porcelli Defendants further waive any right to attorney's fees that may arise under said provision of law. The parties shall each bear their own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.

8. Any voluntary bankruptcy petitions filed by the Porcelli Defendants do not automatically stay this action, which the Court finds is the “commencement or continuation of an action or proceeding by a governmental unit . . . to enforce such governmental unit’s . . . police or regulatory power,” as set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(4).

9. Any voluntary bankruptcy petitions filed by the Porcelli Defendants do not divest this Court of jurisdiction to enter this Order against the Porcelli Defendants.

10. This Order is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies that may be provided by law.

11. As to Porcelli only, Sections VI through IX below supersede Sections VIII through XI of the Porcelli/Harris Order. All other Sections of the Porcelli/Harris Order shall remain in full effect as to Porcelli. Nothing in this Order shall supercede or otherwise limit the enforceability of any provision of the Porcelli/Harris Order with respect to any person other than Porcelli.

All funds paid pursuant to this Order shall be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its agent to be used for equitable relief, including, but not limited to, consumer redress, and any attendant expenses for the administration of such equitable relief. The Porcelli Defendants shall cooperate fully to assist the Commission in identifying consumers who may be entitled to redress pursuant to this Order. If the Commission determines, in its sole discretion, that redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or funds remain after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining funds for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to the Porcelli Defendants' practices alleged in the Complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited to the United States Treasury as disgorgement. The Porcelli Defendants shall have no right to challenge the Commission's choice of remedies under this Part. The Porcelli Defendants shall have no right to contest the manner of distribution chosen by the Commission. This judgment for equitable monetary relief is solely remedial in nature and is not a fine, penalty, punitive assessment, or forfeiture;

C. Porcelli is further required, unless he already has done so, to provide the Commission with clear, legible and full-size photocopies of all valid driver's licenses that he possesses, which will be used for reporting and compliance purposes;

D. The Porcelli Defendants relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid to the fullest extent permitted by law. The Porcelli Defendants shall make no claim to, or demand for return of, the funds, directly or indirectly, through counsel or otherwise.

E. The Porcelli Defendants agree that the facts as alleged in the Complaint filed in this action shall be taken as true without further proof in any bankruptcy case or subsequent civil litigation pursued by the Commission to enforce its rights to any payment or money judgment pursuant to this Order, including but not limited to a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case. The Porcelli Defendants further stipulate and agree that the facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action pursuant to, and that this Order shall have collateral estoppel effect for purposes of Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A); and

F. Proceedings instituted under this Section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any

Plaintiff's agreement to this Order is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of their financial condition, as represented in the financial statements referenced above, which contain material information upon which Plaintiff relied in negotiating and agreeing to the terms of this Order;

B. If, upon motion of the FTC, the Court finds that the Porcelli Defendants failed to disclose any material asset, materially misrepresented the value of any asset, or made any other material misrepresentation in or omission from their financial statements or supporting documents, the suspended judgment entered in Section II.A shall become immediately due and payable (less any amounts already paid). Provided, however, that, in all other respects, this Order shall remain in full force and effect, unless otherwise ordered by the Court; and

C. Any proceedings instituted under this Section shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies that may be provided by law, including but not limited to, contempt proceedings, or any other proceedings that the Commission or the United States might initiate to enforce this Order. For purposes of this Section, the Porcelli Defendants waive any right to contest any of the allegations in the Commission's Complaint.

IV. PROHIBITIONS REGARDING CONSUMER INFORMATION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Porcelli Defendants, and their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, are hereby permanently restrained and enjoined from:

Disclosing, using, or benefitting from customer information, including the name, address, telephone number, email address, social security number, other identifying information, or any data that enables access to a customer's account (including a credit card, bank account, mortgage, or other financial account), of any person which any Defendant obtained prior to entry of this Order in connection with promoting, offering for sale, or selling, directly or indirectly, any Credit-Related Product; and

A. Attempting to collect, collecting, or assigning any right to collect payment from any consumer for any product or service sold by any Defendant, under any name, including, but not limited to, any mortgage loan payments, interest, or fees; and

B. Taking any action to establish or enforce any claim, right, or interest as to any current or former customer of any Defendant, including, but not limited to, the following actions:

1. Commencing, prosecuting, continuing, entering, or enforcing any suit or proceeding;
