Re: FOIA-2015-00798
Google Memo

Dear Ms. Horwitz:

This is in response to your request dated March 26, 2015 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to:

1. All communications including but not limited to e-mail, letters, analyses, talking points, and memos, between the White House and the FTC regarding the Commission's antitrust inquiry into Google;
2. All meeting notes, memoranda, and other related materials, including appointment book entries, for Chairman Leibowitz for all meetings on December 12, 2011, including with staff.

In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records as of March 26, 2015, the date we received your request in our FOIA office. Our search of the FTC's records did not identify any record that would respond to your request.

Your request sought a waiver of fees. As a member of the news media, you are entitled to free search and review. As there were no documents to duplicate, no fees accrued for this request and a fee waiver is moot.

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, or by facsimile at (202) 326-2477 within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response.

If you have any questions about the way we have handled your request or about the FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Jonathan Hill at (202) 326-2684.

Sincerely,
