Anna,

As discussed, looking forward to seeing you on Monday. We will focus our presentation on what we believe to be the stark differences between the Herbalife business model and past FTC pyramiding cases. Also wanted to confirm Joe Farrell will be in attendance.

Please feel free to call me over the weekend if you have any questions: (b)(6) (cell).

Best,

Jon

Bridget,

I tried unsuccessfully to book a room today. I'll let you know tomorrow whether I can get one for everyone.

Thanks,

Shaundra

Thanks, Bridget. At this point, they have now indicated they can no longer do March 7, and scheduling is up in the air. You previously indicated that that was the only day that week that Commissioner Ohlhausen was available. Is that still the case?

Shaundra,

Commissioner Ohlhausen can do anytime on the 7th for a 90 minute meeting. Please let us know what works best and I will put a hold on her calendar. Thank you!

Hi Anna and Bridget,

Counsel confirmed March 7. What time works for you? I'm assuming early afternoon would be ideal for them. As you noted, they requested a two-hour meeting. I told them 90 minutes was most likely but would confirm each Commissioner's preference.

Thanks,

Shaundra

Andy Strenio called again today requesting a meeting with just the AAs in our office. I declined and said that we would just take one meeting with the Commissioner. He said that in that case, he would request a two-hour meeting. I told him I wouldn't commit to a length, but certainly Commissioner Ohlhausen would want sufficient time to thoroughly discuss the issues in the case. (I'm thinking 90 min might be the right amount of time). He asked about timing and I told him were we all on board with scheduling as soon as practical, and that the meeting logistics would be coordinated through your office.
