FOIA-2023-01211 06/08/2023 documents submitted to the FTC that were prepared by Moneygram International, per the terms of Moneygram's November 9, 2012 deferred prosecution agreement with the Department of Justice. The documents also pertain to FTC actions against Moneygram, including 2009 and 2018 orders. Specifically, I am requesting:

1) each of the initial and annual follow-up reports prepared by the first of two independent compliance monitors for Moneygram, starting with the agreement in April 2013 for the appointment as monitor of Aaron Marcu, with Freshfields Burckhaus and Deringer law firm, for a five-year term, scheduled to end in April 2018; I believe there are five such reports;

2) each of the initial and followup annual compliance reports submitted by Moneygram's second independent monitor, which were required to be submitted by Moneygram to the FTC within 15 days of receipt, under terms of the amended and extended deferred-prosecution agreement reached in November 2018 with DOJ as well as the company's 2018 stipulated order with the FTC.

FOIA-2024-00216

11/06/2023 Requesting firm represents investors in a securities fraud suit against Walgreens Boots Alliance, Inc. ("Walgreens") in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania, captioned Recovery Master, LLC v. Walgreens Boots Alliance, Inc. et al. and Mason Capital Master Fund, L.P. v. Walgreens Boots Alliance, Inc. et al., Consolidated Case No. 1:20-cv-1912-JPW (M.D. Pa.) (the "Walgreens Civil Action"). The case arises from Walgreens' and its former executive officers' public statements concerning the FTC's review of the proposed acquisition of Rite Aid Corp. ("Rite Aid") by Walgreens that was announced in October 2015 (the "Merger"). We understand that the Merger was reviewed by the FTC's Mergers I Division. The FTC opposed the Merger as anticompetitive and, in June 2017, the parties abandoned the Merger and instead entered into an asset purchase agreement for the purchase of certain Rite Aid stores by Walgreens. Our clients were Rite Aid investors who purchased Rite Aid common stock in reliance on Walgreens' public statements about the FTC's review of the Merger. Trial is scheduled to begin in June 2024.

Walgreens – through its litigation counsel at Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP ("Weil") – has proffered Benjamin Gris as a proposed expert in the Walgreens Civil Action. Mr. Gris is the former head of the FTC's Mergers II Division, and held that position during the time the Merger was pending. He left the FTC in 2018 and currently serves as a partner at Shearman & Sterling. In his expert report and during his deposition in the Walgreens Civil Action, Mr. Gris offered opinions about the FTC's review of the Merger based on his time working at the FTC.
Requests:

- 1.The written notification that Mr. Gris provided to the FTC's General Counsel, pursuant to 16 C.F.R. &#167; 4.11(e)(2), disclosing that Mr. Gris had been asked by Weil to provide testimony in the Walgreens Civil Action about nonpublic materials and/or information acquired during his FTC employment.
- 2.The statement that Weil or Walgreens furnished to the FTC's General Counsel, pursuant to 16 C.F.R. § 4.11(e)(3), setting forth their interest in the Walgreens Civil Action, the relevance of Mr. Gris's proposed testimony, whether Mr. Gris's proposed testimony is reasonably available from other sources, a general summary of the proposed testimony, and whether FTC records could be produced and used in its place.
- 3.If the FTC's General Counsel granted a waiver to Weil or Walgreens of the statement requirement set forth in 16 C.F.R. § 4.11(e)(3), any documents concerning that waiver.
- 4.If the FTC granted Mr. Gris permission to testify in the Walgreens Civil Action pursuant to 16 C.F.R. § 4.11(e), any documents reflecting that permission and explaining the scope of Mr. Gris's permissible testimony.
- 5.If the FTC denied Mr. Gris permission to testify in the Walgreens Civil Action pursuant to 16 C.F.R. § 4.11(e), any document reflecting that denial. (Data Report for Request Search Form)
