IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. Judgment in the amount of two million one hundred and seven thousand seven hundred twenty-seven dollars and sixty-nine cents ($2,107,727.69) is entered in favor of Plaintiffs against Individual Defendant and Corporate Defendant, jointly and severally. This judgment shall be joint and several with any Relief Defendants to the extent subsequently ordered.

B. That judgment shall be suspended upon full compliance with the following, time being of the essence:

1. Defendants are ordered to cooperate fully and take such steps as the Receiver may require, including executing any documents and providing any necessary information, to cause the transfer to the Receiver, or to his qualified settlement fund or other designee, possession and legal and equitable title to the real property described in paragraph A of Attachment A to this Order (collectively, "Graham Real Property"). Further, within 7 days of entry of this Order, the Individual Defendant shall transfer possession of the Graham Real Property to the Receiver or his designee. To transfer possession of the Graham Real Property, Defendants shall vacate the Graham Real Property in "broom clean condition," and deliver all keys and security codes, if any, to the Receiver along with written notice that possession is surrendered. Following full transfer of title and possession, the Receiver shall be responsible for all maintenance, utilities, taxes, homeowner's association fees, and all other expenses of any nature related to the Graham Real Property.

Defendants represent that there are no liens or encumbrances on the Graham

Real Property except for that certain mortgage disclosed in the sworn financial statement of the Individual Defendant signed on July 27, 2022, and that they will not add any such encumbrances after signing this Order. The costs and expenses of transferring the Graham Real Property shall be paid by the receivership estate. Individual Defendant intentionally, and after consulting with her attorney, expressly waives her right to assert any homestead exemption in the Graham Real Property to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, and further hereby forever waives, releases, discharges, and disclaims all right, title, and interest in the Graham Real Property described in this sub-paragraph. Until Defendants transfer title and possession of the Graham Real Property, Defendants shall take no action to diminish the value of the Graham Real Property, including any structures, fixtures, and appurtenances thereto, but instead shall maintain the Graham Real Property in the same condition as on the date Individual Defendant executed her sworn financial statements dated July 27, 2022. Until Defendants transfer title and possession of the Graham Real Property to the Receiver, Defendants shall remain current on all amounts due and payable on the Graham Real Property, including insurance, utilities, and reasonable and necessary maintenance. The Individual Defendant shall take such additional and further action as the Receiver reasonably may direct.

2. Defendants are further ordered to cooperate fully and take such steps as the Receiver may require, including executing any documents and providing any necessary information, to cause the transfer to the Receiver, or his qualified settlement fund or designee, possession and legal and equitable title (if applicable) of the personal property described in paragraph B of Attachment A to this Order (collectively, “Defendants’ Personal Property”). Further, within 7 days of entry of this Order, Defendants shall deliver actual possession of Defendants’ Personal Property to the Receiver or his designee, to the extent it has not already been turned over. Following transfer of title (if applicable) and possession, the Receiver shall be responsible for all maintenance, utilities, taxes, insurance, and all other expenses of any nature related to Defendants’ Personal Property. Defendants represent that there are no liens or encumbrances on Defendants’ Personal Property except for those disclosed in Defendants’ sworn financial statement signed on July 27, 2022, and that they will not add any such encumbrances after signing this Order. The costs and expenses of transferring Defendants’ Personal Property shall be paid by the Receivership. Defendants hereby forever waive, release, discharge, and disclaim all right, title, and interest in Defendants’ Personal Property described in this sub-paragraph. Until Defendants transfer title (if applicable) and possession of Defendants’ Personal Property, Defendants shall maintain it in the same condition as on the date Defendants executed their sworn financial statements dated July 27, 2022. Until Defendants transfer title (if applicable) and possession of Defendants’ Personal Property to the Receiver, Defendants shall remain current on all amounts due and payable on Defendants' Personal Property, including tax, insurance and necessary maintenance, and similar fees.

3. Any entity or person, including Defendants or any financial institution, holding Defendants' frozen assets must transfer those assets to the Receiver in accordance with the Receiver's instructions, within 7 days of the entry of this Order.

C. Upon the sale of the Graham Real Property and Defendants' Personal Property pursuant to Section VI, the Receiver shall retain all sale proceeds remaining after payment of the items identified in Section VI.A pending further order of the Court, except that Defendant Graham shall retain two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) of the proceeds of the sale of the Graham Real Property, provided that the Receiver determines that Graham has fully complied with her obligations pursuant to Section IV.B.

D. Plaintiffs' agreement to the suspension of the remainder of the judgment is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Defendants' sworn financial statements and related documents (collectively, "Financial Attestations") submitted to Plaintiffs, namely:

1. the sworn financial statement of Individual Defendant Treashonna Graham signed on July 27, 2022, including the attachments; and
2. the sworn financial statement of Corporate Defendant C Lee Enterprises LLC signed by Treashonna Graham on July 27, 2022, including the attachments.

E. The suspension of the judgment will be lifted as to any Defendant if, upon motion by any Plaintiff, the Court finds that a Defendant failed to disclose any material asset, materially misstated the value of any asset, or made any other material misstatement or omission in the financial representations identified above, or that a Defendant is in default on any obligation under this Section.

F. If the suspension of the judgment is lifted, the judgment becomes immediately due as to that Defendant in the amount specified in Subsection A above (which the parties stipulate only for purposes of this Section represents the consumer injury alleged in the First Amended Complaint), less any payment previously made pursuant to this Section, plus interest computed from the date of entry of this Order at the rate prescribed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended.

G. Defendants relinquish dominion and all legal and equitable right, title, and interest in all assets transferred pursuant to this Order and may not seek the return of any assets.

H. The facts alleged in the First Amended Complaint will be taken as true, without further proof, in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of Plaintiffs, including in a proceeding to enforce their rights to any payment or monetary judgment pursuant to this Order, such as a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

I. The facts alleged in the First Amended Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by Plaintiffs pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and this Order will have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

J. Defendants acknowledge that their Taxpayer Identification Numbers (Social Security Numbers or Employer Identification Numbers), which Defendants previously submitted to Plaintiffs, may be used for collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order, in accordance with 31 U.S.C. §7701.

K. All money received by Plaintiffs pursuant to this Order may be deposited into a fund administered by the FTC or its designee on behalf of both the FTC and the State of Florida. This fund shall be used for consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. If Plaintiffs decide that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or money remains after such redress is completed, Plaintiffs may, in their discretion, apply any remaining money for such other relief (including consumer notification or information remedies) as they determine to be reasonably related to Defendants' practices alleged in the First Amended Complaint. Any money not used for relief shall be distributed among the FTC and the State of Florida in the following manner:

1. The State of Florida shall be reimbursed for attorney's fees and costs it incurred in this matter, including its costs of investigation and litigation, to be deposited to the Florida Department of Legal Affairs Revolving Trust Fund.

2. All remaining joint funds shall be divided equally between the FTC and the State of Florida, with half to be deposited to the U.S. Treasury and half to be deposited to the Florida Department of Legal Affairs Revolving Trust Fund for compliance and future monitoring.

L. Defendants have no right to challenge any actions Plaintiffs or their representatives may take pursuant to paragraph K.

M. The asset freeze is modified to permit the transfers identified in this Section. Upon completion of those transfers, the asset freeze as to Defendants is dissolved.

V. CUSTOMER INFORMATION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants and their officers, agents, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, in connection with promoting or offering for sale any good or service are permanently restrained and enjoined from directly or indirectly:

A. failing to provide sufficient customer information to enable Plaintiffs to efficiently administer consumer redress. Defendants represent that they have provided this redress information to Plaintiffs. If a representative of Plaintiffs requests in writing any information related to redress, Defendants must provide it, in the form prescribed by Plaintiffs, within 14 days;

B. disclosing, using, or benefitting from customer information, including the name, address, telephone number, email address, social security number, other identifying information, or any data that enables access to a customer's account

(including a credit card, bank account, or other financial account), that any Defendant obtained prior to entry of this Order; and

C. failing to destroy such customer information in all forms in their possession, custody, or control within 30 days after entry of this Order.

Provided, however, that customer information need not be disposed of, and may be disclosed, to the extent requested by a government agency or required by law, regulation, or court order.

VI. RECEIVERSHIP TERMINATION

A. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that upon receipt of title and possession, the Receiver shall proceed to sell the Graham Real Property and Defendants' Personal Property, to the extent it had not already been sold.

1. The Receiver shall use his business judgment to market and sell the Graham Real Property via public or private sale, in the manner he deems best suited to maximize the sale price. The Receiver is authorized to proceed with a private sale, if he deems it appropriate, without regard to 28 U.S.C. § 2001. With the proceeds of the sale, the Receiver shall pay all necessary and reasonable expenses of sale to include, (i) if a private sale, a real estate commission not exceeding five percent of the sale price, or (ii) if a public sale, an auctioneer's commission not to exceed four percent of the sale price. The Receiver also shall utilize the sale proceeds to pay all outstanding liens and mortgages encumbering the Graham Real Property.

2. The Receiver shall use his business judgment to market and sell Defendants' Personal Property via public sale. With the proceeds of the sale, the Receiver shall pay all necessary and reasonable expenses of sale, to include an auctioneer's commission not to exceed ten percent of the sale price, plus a "buyer's premium" to be paid by the purchaser of no more than ten percent.

B. After the sale of the Graham Real Property and Defendants' Personal Property, the Receiver shall file reports with the Court detailing his activities and the results of the sale, including whether Individual Defendant complied with the turnover provisions above by transferring possession of the Graham Real Property and Defendants' Personal Property within the time frames set forth above, as well as whether they were turned over in the same conditions as they were on the date Defendants executed their sworn financial statements dated July 27, 2022.

C. The Receiver must complete all duties within 120 days after entry of this Order, but any party or the Receiver may request that the Court extend that Receiver's term for good cause. The Receiver shall complete liquidation of all assets described in Section IV.B without further order of the Court. The Receiver shall use the proceeds of the sales of these assets to pay any legitimate liens and necessary expenses relating to the sales. Upon liquidation of these assets, the Receiver shall submit his final report and application for fees and expenses relating to the receivership over Corporate Defendant and the liquidation of the assets described in Section IV.B of this Order and upon approval by the Court, the Receiver shall transfer any remaining funds, less claims approved by the Court, to the Plaintiffs.

Upon the Court's approval of the Receiver's final report as to the Corporate Defendant, and the payment of any remaining funds to the Plaintiffs under this Section, the Receivership shall be terminated.
