Plaintiff, the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”), for its Complaint alleges:

1. The FTC brings this action under Section 13(b) of the Federal Trade Commission Act (“FTC Act”), 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), and Section 814 of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, (“FDCPA”), 15 U.S.C. § 1692l, to obtain temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive relief, rescission or reformation of contracts, restitution, the refund of monies paid, disgorgement of ill-gotten monies, the appointment of a receiver, and other equitable relief for Defendants’ acts or practices in violation of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), and the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692-1692p, in connection with Defendants’ deceptive, abusive, and unfair debt collection practices.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1337(a), and 1345, and 15 U.S.C. §§ 45(a), 53(b), and 1692l.

3. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1), (b)(2), (c)(1), (c)(2), and (d), and 15 U.S.C. § 53(b).

The FTC enforces Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), which prohibits unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce. The FTC also enforces the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692-1692p, which prohibits deceptive, abusive, and unfair debt collection practices and imposes duties upon debt collectors.

5. The FTC is authorized to initiate federal district court proceedings, by its own attorneys, to enjoin violations of the FTC Act and the FDCPA and to secure such equitable relief as may be appropriate in each case, including rescission or reformation of contracts, restitution, the refund of monies paid, and the disgorgement of ill-gotten monies. 15 U.S.C. §§ 53(b), 56(a)(2)(A), and 1692l(a).

COMMERCE

13. At all times material to this Complaint, Defendants have maintained a substantial course of trade in or affecting commerce, as “commerce” is defined in Section 4 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 44.

DEFENDANTS’ ILLEGAL COLLECTION PRACTICES

14. Since at least March 2010, and continuing thereafter, Defendants have used deception and threats to extract money from consumers for purported debts. Using telephone calls, text messages to mobile phones, and electronic and United States mail, Defendants have repeatedly: (1) falsely threatened consumers with dire consequences, including arrest, if consumers fail to make the payments that Defendants demand; (2) unlawfully contacted consumers’ family members, employers, and other third parties; (3) charged consumers impermissible fees; and (4) denied consumers statutorily-required information about themselves and the consumers’ purported debts, including information necessary for the consumers to confirm or dispute the debts.

15. The enterprise operated as Audubon Financial Bureau from at least spring 2010 through late 2013. From late 2013 through about fall 2014, it operated as ARM WNY. From about fall 2014 to the present, it has operated as Unified Global Group.

16. Defendants’ combination of aggressive misrepresentations, unlawful third-party communications, and failure to comply with basic disclosure requirements has elicited millions of dollars in consumer payments.

Defendants' False Threats of Arrest or Other Legal Consequences Against Consumers

17. Defendants' false threats and claims to consumers and third parties regularly follow a central theme: consumers face imminent lawsuits, criminal charges, and even arrest unless they pay the money that Defendants are demanding.

18. To bolster their false claims, Defendants have threatened to serve consumers with legal papers at their homes or workplaces, claimed that arrest warrants have been issued for them, told consumers that they were being sued for criminal check fraud or bank fraud, and claimed that the consumers' wages will be garnished if they failed to pay. In some instances, Defendants have instructed consumers to stay in place to wait for police officers to arrive at their homes or workplaces to arrest them.

19. At least one consumer received a full panoply of false threats. In a series of voicemail messages, Defendants told the consumer that she was being sued for criminal fraud, process servers would be showing up at her office, a warrant was being issued for her arrest, and the police were on their way.

20. Defendants have claimed routinely that the consequences they describe—lawsuits, wage garnishment, criminal charges, or arrest—are imminent or under way, and that the consumer's only option for averting personal catastrophe is to submit payment.

21. In truth and in fact, in numerous instances when Defendants have threatened consumers with lawsuits or other legal action, no legal action against the consumer had been taken or was intended to be taken. In addition, Defendants cannot have a consumer arrested for non-payment of a purported private debt, and cannot have a consumer's wages garnished, because they have not filed an action and obtained a judgment against the consumer.

place of abode, telephone number, or place of employment; (2) have disclosed the consumer's purported debt to the third party; or (3) have represented to the third party that Defendants will commence legal action—including arrest—against the putative debtor if the debt is not paid.

Defendants' Failure to Provide Statutorily-Required
Notices and Disclosures to Consumers

26. In addition to making false threats, Defendants have failed frequently to provide consumers with statutorily-required disclosures in their collection calls, emails, and text messages, including disclosures identifying themselves as debt collectors and stating that the communication is an attempt to collect a debt and that any information provided by the consumer will be used for that purpose.

27. In numerous instances, Defendants also have failed to provide consumers with a statutorily-required notice, either orally in their initial communication with the consumer or in writing within five days of the initial communication, setting forth the following: (1) the amount of the purported debt; (2) the name of the creditor to whom the purported debt is owed; (3) a statement that unless the consumer disputes the debt, the debt will be assumed valid; (4) a statement that if the consumer disputes all or part of the debt in writing within 30 days, the debt collector will obtain verification of the debt and mail it to the consumer; and (5) a statement that, upon the consumer's written request within the 30-day period, the debt collector will provide the name and address of the original creditor, if different from the current creditor.

28. In numerous instances, Defendants have refused to provide consumers with this notice despite consumers' repeated requests and, as a result, consumers have been unable to exercise their rights under the FDCPA to make a cease-and-desist request or dispute formally the validity of a purported debt.

Defendants' Unlawful Processing Fees

29. In numerous instances, Defendants have insisted that consumers pay a "processing" or "courtesy" fee, typically in the amount of $6.95 per payment.

30. In numerous instances, the processing fee Defendants have charged has not been expressly authorized by the agreement that created the purported debt, nor permitted by law.

VIOLATIONS OF THE FTC ACT

31. Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), prohibits "unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce."

32. Misrepresentations or deceptive omissions of material fact constitute deceptive acts or practices prohibited by Section 5(a) of the FTC Act.

COUNT I

False or Misleading Representations to Collect Purported Debts

33. In numerous instances, in connection with the collection of purported consumer debts, Defendants have represented, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication, that:

- a. Defendants have filed, or intend to file, a lawsuit against the consumer for failure to pay a purported debt;
- b. Defendants will have the consumer arrested or imprisoned, or have the consumer's wages garnished; or
- c. The consumer has a payment scheduled or the consumer's payment has been declined.

34. In truth and in fact, in numerous instances in which Defendants have made the representations set forth in Paragraph 33 of this Complaint:

- a. Defendants have not filed, and do not intend to file, a lawsuit against the consumer;

- b. Defendants have not had the consumer arrested or imprisoned, or had the consumer's wages garnished; and
- c. The consumer does not have a payment scheduled, or the consumer's payment has not been declined.

35. Therefore, Defendants' representations as set forth in Paragraph 33 of this Complaint are false or misleading and constitute deceptive acts or practices in violation of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a).

VIOLATIONS OF THE FDCPA

36. In 1977, Congress passed the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692-1692p, which became effective on March 20, 1978, and has been in force since that date. Under Section 814 of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692l, a violation of the FDCPA is deemed an unfair or deceptive act or practice in violation of the FTC Act. Further, the FTC is authorized to use all of its functions and powers under the FTC Act to enforce compliance with the FDCPA.

37. Throughout this Complaint, the term "consumer," as defined in Section 803(3) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(3), means "any natural person obligated or allegedly obligated to pay any debt."

38. Throughout this Complaint, the term "debt," as defined in Section 803(5) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(5), means "any obligation or alleged obligation of a consumer to pay money arising out of a transaction in which the money, property, insurance, or services which are the subject of the transaction are primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, whether or not such obligation has been reduced to judgment."

39. Throughout this Complaint, the term “location information,” as defined in Section 803(7) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(7), means “a consumer’s place of abode and his telephone number at such place, or his place of employment.”

COUNT II
Unlawful Communications with Third Parties

40. In numerous instances, in connection with the collection of debts, Defendants have communicated with persons other than the consumer, the consumer’s attorney, a consumer reporting agency if otherwise permitted by law, the creditor, the attorney of the creditor, the attorney of the debt collector, the consumer’s spouse, parent (if the consumer is a minor), guardian, executor, or administrator for purposes other than acquiring location information about the consumer, without having obtained directly the prior consent of the consumer or the express permission of a court of competent jurisdiction, and when not reasonably necessary to effectuate a post-judgment judicial remedy, in violation of Section 805(b) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692c(b).

COUNT III
False, Deceptive, or Misleading Representations to Consumers

41. In numerous instances, in connection with the collection of debts, Defendants, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication, have used false, deceptive, or misleading representations or means, in violation of Section 807 of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e, including, but not limited to:

- a. Falsely representing or implying that nonpayment of a debt will result in the arrest or imprisonment of a person or the seizure, garnishment, or attachment of a person’s property or wages, when such action is not lawful or when Defendants have no intention of taking such action, in violation of Section 807(4) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(4);

- b. Threatening to take action that Defendants do not intend to take, such as filing a lawsuit, in violation of Section 807(5) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(5);
- c. Using a false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect a debt, or to obtain information concerning a consumer, in violation of Section 807(10) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(10), including false representations that the consumer has a payment scheduled or the consumer's payment has been declined; or
- d. Failing to disclose in the initial communication with a consumer that Defendants are debt collectors attempting to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose, or failing to disclose in subsequent communications that the communication is from a debt collector, in violation of Section 807(11) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(11).

COUNT IV Unauthorized Charges

42. In numerous instances, in connection with the collection of debts, Defendants have collected fees that are not expressly authorized by the agreement creating the debt or permitted by law, in violation of Section 808(1) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692f(1).

COUNT V
Failure to Provide Statutorily-Required Notice

43. In numerous instances, in connection with the collection of debts, Defendants have failed to provide consumers, either in the initial communication or a written notice sent within five days after the initial communication, with information about the debt and the right to dispute the debt, in violation of Section 809(a) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692g(a).

CONSUMER INJURY

44. Consumers have suffered and will continue to suffer substantial injury as a result of Defendants' violations of the FTC Act and the FDCPA. In addition, Defendants have been unjustly enriched as a result of their unlawful acts or practices. Absent injunctive relief by this Court, Defendants are likely to continue to injure consumers, reap unjust enrichment, and harm the public interest.

THIS COURT'S POWER TO GRANT RELIEF

45. Section 13(b) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), and Section 814(a) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692l(a), empower this Court to grant injunctive and such other relief as the Court may deem appropriate to halt and redress violations of any provision of law enforced by the FTC. The Court, in the exercise of its equitable jurisdiction, may award ancillary relief, including rescission or reformation of contracts, restitution, the refund of monies paid, and the disgorgement of ill-gotten monies, to prevent and remedy any violation of any provision of law enforced by the FTC.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, Plaintiff FTC, pursuant to Section 13(b) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), and Section 814(a) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692l(a), and the Court's own equitable powers, requests that the Court:

A. Award Plaintiff such preliminary injunctive and ancillary relief as may be necessary to avert the likelihood of consumer injury during the pendency of this action and to preserve the possibility of effective final relief, including but not limited to, temporary and preliminary injunctions, an order freezing assets, immediate access, and appointment of a receiver;

B. Enter a permanent injunction to prevent future violations of the FTC Act and the FDCPA by Defendants;

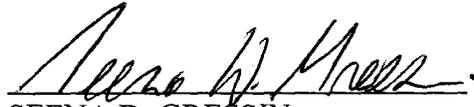

C. Award such relief as the Court finds necessary to redress injury to consumers resulting from Defendants' violations of the FTC Act and the FDCPA, including but not limited to, rescission or reformation of contracts, restitution, the refund of monies paid, and the disgorgement of ill-gotten monies; and

D. Award Plaintiff the costs of bringing this action, as well as such other and additional relief as the Court may determine to be just and proper.
