Tweets for Chairman Leibowitz' Introductory Remarks

FTC Chairman Jon Leibowitz welcomes everyone to the FTC's Robocalls Summit. #FTCrobo

Leibowitz: We pride ourselves on fact we take a multi-faceted approach to consumer protection: enforcement, ed, policy & advocacy. #FTCrobo

Illegal robocallers are bottom feeders disturbing peace, violating right 2 be let alone & trying 2 steal our money. – Leibowitz #FTCrobo

Leibowitz calls "Rachel" public enemy number 1 & robocalls source of over 200K FTC complaints each month. #FTCrobo

FTC has sued Rachel & her co-workers many times; brought more than a dozen cases targeting illegal robocalls, says Leibowitz. #FTCrobo

Leibowitz: There are more robocall cases in the pipeline. #FTCrobo
It's been nearly 10 years since FTC implemented National Do Not Call Registry. More than 217 million numbers registered. – Leibowitz #FTCrobo

Leibowitz: No Q our efforts significantly reduced number of unwanted telemarketing calls people getting from legitimate marketers. #FTCrobo

Summit agenda ambitious, engaging & provocative, says Leibowitz. Thanks everyone for participating & welcomes first panelists. #FTCrobo

Question to panelists: Why is "Rachel" still calling? #FTCrobo

Maxson: All you need is a computer & internet connection. Lead generators just looking for bodies, like email spammers. #FTCrobo

Greg Zoeller, IN Attorney General, says it's getting harder w/ new tech to be successful [in tracking down illegal robocallers]. #FTCrobo

RT [REDACTED] Awesome! The FTC has set up a honeypot for robocalls and phone scammers. #FTCrobo

Panelists discussing "what is magic number" that triggers investigation. @FCC's Eric Bash says there is not one, it's contextual. #FTCrobo

Lunch break! FTC Robocall Summit will resume at 1:20pm ET. #FTCrobo

Panel 4 Tweets

And we're back with Panel 4: Caller ID Spoofing & Call Authentication Technology.

<http://bit.ly/VaRgWX> #FTCrobo

Henning Schulzrinne, @FCC CTO, discussing number authentication & caller identification at FTC Robocall Summit. #FTCrobo

Caller ID Spoofing: Sending false or misleading info, so as to deceive receiving party &/or hide caller's true id/call origination. #FTCrobo

Malicious robocallers spoof random numbers as well as specific customer numbers, says Adam Panagia, AT&T. #FTCrobo

Presentations from the first half of the FTC Robocall Summit are now posted on our workshop page: <http://go.usa.gov/YXUz> #FTCrobo

Patrick Cox, TrustID, discussing how TrustID Authentication works for enterprise clients. #FTCrobo

Vijay Balasubramaniyan, Pindrop Security: Fraudsters use VoIP phones most, but cell use increased by almost 300% in last 6 months.

Reminder: If you're watching our Robocall Summit webcast, you can submit questions to panelists via Twitter. #FTCrobo
