Re: Amended Certificate of Service for Respondent LabMD, Inc.'s Motion for a Protective Order

Dear Chief Administrative Law Judge Chappell:

I write to inform you that, despite good-faith efforts, we were unable to serve Complaint Counsel via e-mail with Respondent LabMD, Inc.'s Motion for a Protective Order and supporting exhibits (collectively "LabMD's Motion for a Protective Order") on November 5, 2013, the date on which those documents were filed in paper form in Room H-113 of the Office of the Secretary. Courtesy copies of LabMD's Motion for a Protective Order were sent via e-mail to you and the Secretary, and Complaint Counsel was served via e-mail and courier service with LabMD's Motion for a Protective Order, the following day, November 6, 2013. Accordingly, please find enclosed along with this letter an Amended Certificate of Service reflecting the correct date on which LabMD's Motion for a Protective Order was served on Complaint Counsel via email and sent via courier service.

I regret and sincerely apologize for any inconvenience that this may have caused.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael D. Pepson
