INC.

Plaintiff, the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC” or “Commission”), commenced this action by filing its Complaint for a permanent injunction and other relief in this matter on October 23, 2000, pursuant to Sections 13(b) and 19(a) of the Federal Trade Commission Act (“FTC Act”), 15 U.S.C. §§ 53(b) and 57b, and the Telemarketing and Consumer Fraud and Abuse Prevention Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 6101 et seq. The complaint charges Defendants Anthony W. Andrews, Tracy A. Andrews, TNT Talks, Inc. (“TNT”), d/b/a Advanced Consumer Services, and Least Cost Utilities, Inc. (“LCU”), d/b/a Advanced Consumer Services, with violations of Section 5 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45, and the FTC’s Telemarketing Sales Rule (“TSR”), 16 C.F.R. Part 310.

The Commission, by and through its counsel, and Defendants, by and through their counsel, have agreed to the entry of this Stipulated Final Judgment and Order of Permanent Injunction (“Final Judgment”) by this Court in order to resolve all matters of dispute between them in this action. The Commission and Defendants have consented to entry of this Final Judgment without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law, and without Defendants admitting liability or wrongdoing for the offenses alleged in the Complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and Defendants having requested this Court to enter this Final Judgment, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

FINDINGS

1. This Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this case and of the parties consenting hereto. Venue in the Middle District of Florida is proper.

3. The activities of the Defendants are in or affecting commerce, as defined in the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 44.

4. The Complaint states a claim upon which relief may be granted against Defendants under Sections 5(a), 13(b), and 19 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 45(a), 53(b), and 57b, and the TSR, 16 C.F.R. Part 310.

5. Defendants waive all claims under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, amended by Pub. L. 104-121, 110 Stat 847, 863-64 (1996).

6. The Defendants have also waived all rights to seek appellate review or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of this Final Judgment, and have further waived and released any claim they may have against the Commission, its employees, and agents.

7. Entry of this Final Judgment is in the public interest.

8. This Final Judgment shall not constitute and shall not be interpreted to constitute either an admission by any Defendant or a finding by the Court that any Defendant has engaged in violations of the FTC Act or the TSR.

Nothing in this Final Judgment shall be read as an exception to this Paragraph I.

II.

BOND PROVISION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT:

A. Each Defendant is permanently enjoined from engaging or assisting others, whether directly or indirectly, in concert with others, or through any business entity, in the telemarketing of any product(s) or service(s), unless said Defendant first obtains a performance bond in the principal sum of $300,000 (three hundred thousand dollars).

B. The terms and conditions of the bond requirement in Paragraph A, above, shall be as follows:

1. The bond is conditioned upon compliance by said Defendant with Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 45, the TSR, 16 C.F.R. Part 310, and the provisions of this Final Judgment. The bond shall be deemed continuous and remain in full force and effect as long as said Defendant continues to engage in the telemarketing of any product(s) or service(s), and for at least three (3) years thereafter. The bond shall cite this Final Judgment as the subject matter of the bond, and shall provide surety thereunder against financial loss due, in whole or part, to any violation by said Defendant of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), the TSR, 16 C.F.R. 4. The bond required by this Final Judgment shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any bond required by federal, state, or local law, or the order of another court;

5. The defendants shall not disclose the existence of any performance bond required by this paragraph to any consumer, or other purchaser or prospective purchaser of any product or service that is advertised, promoted, offered for sale, sold, or distributed via telemarketing, without also disclosing clearly and prominently, at the same time, “AS REQUIRED BY ORDER OF THE U.S.

6. The bond shall be executed in favor of the Commission if the Commission demonstrates to this Court, or a Magistrate thereof, by a preponderance of the evidence that, after the effective date of this Final Judgment, said Defendant has, individually or through any other person or entity, violated any condition of the bond.

III.

PROHIBITED BUSINESS PRACTICES

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, in connection with the advertising, promotion, offering for sale or sale of credit card protection or other goods or services, Defendants are hereby permanently restrained and enjoined from:

- A. Making, or assisting others in making, expressly or by implication, any false or misleading oral or written statement or representation of material fact, including but not limited to:
1. Whether Defendant(s) is affiliated with, or calling from, or on behalf of, any credit card issuer or government agency;
 2. Consumers' credit-related rights or obligations under law, including consumers' liability for any unauthorized use of a credit card;
 3. Whether consumers purchased or agreed to purchase goods or services from Defendant(s), and therefore authorized Defendant(s) to charge consumers' credit card accounts;
 4. Whether Defendant(s) will provide refunds to consumers upon request, without restrictions or conditions;
- B. Making any other misrepresentation of fact material to a consumer's purchasing decision; and

C. Violating the TSR, 16 C.F.R. Part 310, as attached hereto as Attachment A, or as it may be subsequently amended.

IV.

MONETARY JUDGMENT AND CONSUMER REDRESS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. Judgment in the amount of $2,000,000 (two million dollars) is hereby entered against Defendants, jointly and severally, for equitable monetary relief, including, but not limited to, consumer redress and/or disgorgement, and for paying any attendant expenses of administering any redress fund. Based upon Defendants' sworn representations in their financial statements and payment of the amounts referred to in Subparagraph B and Paragraph XVIII below, and subject to the provisions in Paragraph V of this Final Judgment and Subparagraph C below, this liability will be suspended;

B. Immediately upon entry of this Final Judgment, the Receiver, Brian A. McDowell, will promptly perform all acts that the Receiver deems necessary to liquidate:

1. Defendants Anthony Andrews and Tracy Andrews' real property located at 1010 Calanda Avenue, Orlando, Florida 32807, and any personal property left by Defendants at 1010 Calanda Avenue, Orlando, Florida 32807; and immediately following the sale of such property the Receiver shall transfer the proceeds from the sale to the Receivership Trust Account: Suntrust Bank, Account No. 0215252204453; and

2. All of Defendants TNT Talks and LCU's property in the Receiver's possession and control, and immediately following the sale of such property, the Receiver shall transfer the proceeds from the sale to the Receivership Trust Account: Suntrust Bank, Account No. 0215252204453;

C. All funds paid pursuant to this Paragraph shall be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its agent to be used for equitable relief, including but not limited to consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. In the event that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or funds remain after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining funds for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to the defendants' practices alleged in the complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited to the Treasury as disgorgement. Defendants shall have no right to challenge the Commission's choice of remedies under this Paragraph; and

D. Defendants expressly waive their rights to litigate the issue of disgorgement. Defendants acknowledge and agree that all money paid pursuant to this Order is irrevocably paid to the Commission for purposes of settlement between Plaintiff and Defendants, and Defendants relinquish all right, title, and interest to assets held by the receiver or receivership estate, or assets subject to claims by the receiver or assets held by the Commission in connection with this case.

E. The Defendants shall also furnish to the Commission, in accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701, their taxpayer identification numbers (social security number, social insurance number, employer identification number, or Revenue Canada identification number), which shall be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of each Defendant's relationship with the government.

V.

RIGHT TO REOPEN

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that upon executing this Order, Defendants shall submit to the Commission a truthful sworn and notarized statement, in the form shown on Attachment B, that shall reaffirm and attest to the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of their financial statements that were executed on July 18, 2001 (collectively designated the "Financial Statements"). The Commission is authorized to verify any information provided in the Financial Statements with any appropriate third-party, including but not limited to, any financial institution or credit reporting bureau. This Court's approval of the Judgment against the Defendants in Paragraph IV is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of the financial statements executed and provided to counsel for the Commission by Defendants on July 18, 2001. If, upon motion by the Commission, this Court finds that any of the Defendants' Financial Statements failed to disclose any material asset or source of income, or materially misrepresented the value of any asset or source of income, or made any other material misrepresentation or omission of assets; the entire amount of the Judgment set forth in Paragraph IV of $2,000,000 (two million dollars) less any payments made pursuant to Paragraphs IV and XVIII of this Final Judgment, and interest computed at the rate prescribed in 28 U.S.C. § 1961, shall immediately begin to accrue on the unpaid balance and will be rendered immediately due and payable by the Defendants.

Provided, however, that in all other respects this Final Judgment shall remain in full force and effect unless otherwise ordered by this Court, and provided further, that proceedings instituted under this Paragraph are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other proceedings the Commission may institute to enforce this Final Judgment. Solely for the purpose of reopening or enforcing this Paragraph of the Final Judgment, Defendants waive any right to contest any of the allegations in the Complaint filed in this matter.

VI.

LIFTING OF ASSET FREEZE

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that upon entry of this Final Judgment, which liquidates the assets as described in Paragraph IV of this Final Judgment, the freeze of Defendants' assets, as ordered in the Temporary Restraining Order entered by this Court on October 23, 2000 and the Preliminary Injunction entered by this Court on November 2, 2000, respectively, is dissolved.

VII.

RETENTION OF RECORDS BY REDRESS ADMINISTRATOR

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the redress administrator shall destroy all records relating to this matter six (6) years after the transfer of any remaining redress funds to the FTC Treasury account or the closing of the account from which such funds were disbursed, whichever is earlier, provided that no records shall be destroyed unless and until a representative of the Commission has received and approved the administrator's final accounting report. Records shall be destroyed in accordance with disposal methods and procedures to be specified by the Commission. The Commission may, in its sole discretion, require that such records, in whole or in part, be transferred, in lieu of destruction, to the Commission.

VIII.

ENFORCEMENT OF CONTRACTS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants are hereby permanently restrained and enjoined from demanding payment on or enforcing or threatening to enforce any contract or agreement, in conjunction with the sale of credit card protection, entered into by any Defendant prior to the effective date of this Final Judgment.

IX.

TRANSFER OF CUSTOMER LISTS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants are hereby permanently restrained and enjoined from selling, renting, leasing, transferring, or otherwise disclosing the name, address, social security number, telephone number, credit card number, debit card number, bank account number, e-mail address, or other identifying information of any person, however obtained, including but not limited to, information of any person who provided such information to or did business with Defendants, to any person. Provided, however, that Defendants may disclose such identifying information to a law enforcement agency or as required by any law, regulation or court order.

X.

RECORDING OF SALES CALLS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in the event that Defendants or their agents record any sales presentation or verification call with a consumer in connection with the sale of any service or product, Defendants are permanently restrained and enjoined from accepting or processing any purchases resulting from such calls unless:

- B. The recording includes clear, complete, and understandable disclosures of all material terms of the purchase, and the consumer's express agreement to such terms;
- C. The material terms disclosed in the recorded conversation shall be consistent with any information previously disclosed to the consumer. Material terms include, but are not limited to:
 - 1. A description of the service or product;
 - 2. The cost of the service or product;
 - 3. The amount of any recurring charges;
 - 4. Limitations on any right to obtain a refund; and
 - 5. The business name, address, and telephone number to which the consumer may address any questions or complaints.

This Paragraph shall not affect any obligation to comply with any federal, state, or local law regarding the recording of telephone conversations.

XI.

Andrews, in connection with any business where (1) Defendants, individually or together, are the majority owners of a business, directly or indirectly control or manage the business, and where (2) the business is engaged in telemarketing, or indirectly uses telemarketing as a means of achieving sales are hereby permanently restrained and enjoined from:
