In the Matter of

REALCOMP II LTD.,

a corporation.

Docket No. 9320

COMPLAINT

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. § 41, et seq.) and by virtue of the authority vested in it by said Act, the Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that Realcomp II Ltd. (hereinafter sometimes referred to as “Respondent” or “Realcomp”), a corporation, has violated and is now violating the provisions of said Act, and it appearing to the Commission that a proceeding by it in respect thereof would be in the public interest, hereby issues this complaint stating its charges as follows:

NATURE OF THE CASE

This matter concerns a corporation, owned by a group of shareholder Boards of Realtors in Southeastern Michigan, that operates a Multiple Listing Service, which is designed to foster real estate brokerage services by sharing and publicizing information on properties for sale by customers of real estate brokers. Realcomp has adopted policies that limit the publication and marketing of certain properties, based on the terms of the listing contract entered into between a real estate broker and the customer who wishes to sell a property. The policies limit the publication of information about such properties on popular internet real estate web sites, and make it more difficult for brokers to search for such listings on the Realcomp MLS. These policies discriminate against certain kinds of lawful contracts between listing real estate brokers and their customers, and lack any pro-competitive justification. These rules constitute an anticompetitive concerted refusal to deal except on specified terms with respect to key inputs for the provision of residential real estate brokerage services, and violate the antitrust laws.

RESPONDENT AND ITS MEMBERS

PARAGRAPH 1. Respondent Realcomp II Ltd. is a corporation organized, existing and doing business under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Michigan, with its office and principal place of business at 28555 Orchard Lake Road, Suite 200, Farmington Hills, Michigan 48334. Respondent is owned by several realtor boards and associations. The members of Respondent are real estate brokers doing business in Southeastern Michigan.

PARAGRAPH 2. Respondent is organized for the purpose of serving its members' interests, including their economic interests, by promoting, fostering, and advancing the real estate brokerage services industry in Southeastern Michigan. One of the primary functions of Respondent is the operation of the Realcomp Multiple Listing Service. A multiple listing service ("MLS") is a clearinghouse through which member real estate brokerage firms regularly and systematically exchange information on listings of real estate properties and share commissions with members who locate purchasers. When a property is listed on the Realcomp MLS, it is made available to all members of the MLS for the purpose of trying to match a buyer with a seller. Information about the property, including the asking price, address and property details, are made available to members of the MLS so that a suitable buyer can be found.

PARAGRAPH 3. The Realcomp shareholder Boards are affiliated with the National Association of Realtors ("NAR"), thereby requiring Realcomp to abide by the NAR rules. Realcomp has more than 14,500 real estate professionals as members. All of the Realcomp members hold either an active real estate license or an active appraiser license and are active in the real estate profession.

PARAGRAPH 4. The large majority of residential real estate brokerage professionals in Southeastern Michigan are members of Realcomp. These professionals compete with one another to provide residential real estate brokerage services to consumers.

PARAGRAPH 5. Realcomp services the territory within Southeastern Michigan, including Livingston County, Oakland County, Macomb County, St. Clair County and Wayne County. ("Realcomp Service Area").

JURISDICTION

PARAGRAPH 6. The acts and practices of Respondent, including the acts and practices alleged herein, have been or are in or affecting commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, as amended, and Respondent is subject to the jurisdiction of the Federal Trade Commission. Among other things, the aforesaid acts and practices:

- (A) Affect the purchase and sale of real estate by persons moving into and out of Southeastern Michigan; and

- (B) Affect the transmission of real estate listing information to public real estate web sites that are intended for a national audience, including Realtor.com.

THE CHALLENGED CONDUCT

PARAGRAPH 7. Respondent has restrained competition in the provision of residential real estate brokerage services by combining or conspiring with its members or others, or by acting as a combination of its members or others, to hinder unreasonably the ability of real estate brokers in Southeastern Michigan to offer residential real estate brokerage services on terms other than those contained in the traditional form of listing agreement known as an Exclusive Right to Sell Listing.

PARAGRAPH 8. An Exclusive Right to Sell Listing is a listing agreement under which the property owner or principal appoints a real estate broker as his or her exclusive agent for a designated period of time, to sell the property on the owner's stated terms, and agrees to pay the broker a commission when the property is sold, whether by the listing broker, the owner or another broker. An Exclusive Right to Sell Listing is the form of listing agreement traditionally used by listing brokers to provide full-service residential real estate brokerage services.

PARAGRAPH 9. An alternative form of listing agreement to an Exclusive Right to Sell Listing is an Exclusive Agency Listing. An Exclusive Agency Listing is a listing agreement under which the listing broker acts as an exclusive agent of the property owner or principal in the sale of a property, but reserves to the property owner or principal a right to sell the property without further assistance of the listing broker, in which case the listing broker is paid a reduced or no commission when the property is sold.

PARAGRAPH 10. Exclusive Agency Listings are a means by which listing brokers can offer lower-cost, Unbundled Real Estate Services to consumers. Unbundled Real Estate Brokerage Services are lawful arrangements pursuant to which a listing broker will cause the property offered for sale to be listed on the MLS, but the listing broker will not provide some or all of the additional services offered by traditional real estate brokers, or will only offer such additional services as may be chosen from a menu of services for a fee.

PARAGRAPH 11. Brokers offering Unbundled Real Estate Brokerage Services often provide home sellers with exposure of their listing through the MLS for a flat fee or reduced commission that is small compared to the full commission prices commonly charged by traditional brokers, often by entering into Exclusive Agency Listings that reserve to the home seller the right to sell the property without owing more to the listing broker.

PARAGRAPH 12. To be listed in the MLS, a home seller must enter into a listing agreement with a listing real estate broker that is a member of the MLS. The compensation paid by the home seller to the listing broker is determined by negotiation between the home seller and the listing broker. Whatever type of listing agreement is entered into between the home seller and the listing real estate broker, the MLS rules require that the home seller must offer to pay a commission to a cooperating real estate broker, known as a selling broker, who successfully secures a buyer for the property. If the home seller fails to pay a commission to a selling broker who secures a buyer for the property, the selling broker may recover the commission due from the listing agent, under rules and procedures established by the MLS.

PARAGRAPH 13. In 2001, Realcomp adopted and approved a rule that stated: “Listing information downloaded and/or otherwise displayed pursuant to IDX shall be limited to properties listed on an exclusive right to sell basis” (the “Web Site Policy”).

PARAGRAPH 14. The Web Site Policy prevents information concerning certain lawful residential property listings provided to Realcomp, including “Exclusive Agency Listings,” from being transmitted to real estate web sites, based on the contractual relationship between the home seller and the real estate agent the seller employs to promote the property.

PARAGRAPH 15. The Web Site Policy specifically prevents information concerning Exclusive Agency Listings from being published on web sites otherwise approved by Realcomp to receive information concerning Realcomp MLS listings (collectively, “Approved Web Sites”). Such web sites include (1) the NAR-operated “Realtor.com” web site; (2) the Realcomp-owned “Moveinmichigan.com” web site; and (3) Realcomp-member web sites.

PARAGRAPH 16. In or about the fall of 2003, Respondent changed the Realcomp MLS search screen to default to Exclusive Right to Sell Listings (“Search Function Policy”). In order to view any other listing types, including Exclusive Agency Listings, Realcomp members have to select the additional listing types in the search screen.

REALCOMP HAS MARKET POWER

PARAGRAPH 17. The provision of residential real estate brokerage services to sellers and buyers of real property in the Southeastern Michigan and/or the Realcomp Service Area is a relevant market.

PARAGRAPH 18. The publication and sharing of information relating to residential real estate listings for the purpose of brokering residential real estate transactions is a key input to the provision of real estate brokerage services, and represents a relevant input market. Publication of listings through the Realcomp MLS is generally considered by sellers, buyers and their brokers to be the fastest and most effective means of obtaining the broadest market exposure for property in the Realcomp Service Area.

PARAGRAPH 19. Participation in Realcomp is a service that is necessary for the provision of effective residential real estate brokerage services to sellers and buyers of real property in the Realcomp Service Area. Participation significantly increases the opportunities of brokerage firms to enter into listing agreements with residential property owners, and significantly reduces the costs of obtaining up-to-date and comprehensive information on listings and sales. The realization of these opportunities and efficiencies is important for brokers to compete effectively in the provision of residential real estate brokerage services in the Realcomp Service Area.

PARAGRAPH 20. Access to the Approved Web Sites is a service that is necessary for the provision of effective residential real estate brokerage services in the Realcomp Service Area. Home buyers regularly use the Approved Web Sites to assist in their search for homes. The Approved Web Sites are the web sites most commonly used by home buyers in their home search. Many home buyers find the home that they ultimately purchase by searching on one or more Approved Web Sites.

PARAGRAPH 21. The most efficient, and at least in some cases the only, means for Realcomp members to have their listed properties visible to the public on the Approved Web Sites is by having Realcomp transmit those listings.

PARAGRAPH 22. By virtue of industry-wide participation and control over the ability of real estate brokers to participate in the Realcomp MLS and the ability of home sellers to publicize their homes for sale on Approved Web Sites, Realcomp has market power in the Realcomp Service Area.

THE REALCOMP POLICIES HAVE NO EFFICIENCY BENEFIT

PARAGRAPH 23. There are no cognizable and plausible efficiency justifications for the conduct that constitutes the violation alleged in this Complaint. Such conduct is not reasonably ancillary to the legitimate and beneficial objectives of the MLS.

VIOLATION

PARAGRAPH 24. In adopting the policies and engaging in the acts and practices described herein, Realcomp has combined or conspired with its members or others, or acted as a combination or conspiracy of its members or others, to restrain trade in the provision of residential real estate brokerage services within Southeastern Michigan and/or the Realcomp Service Area.

PARAGRAPH 25. The acts and practices of Realcomp described herein constitute an agreement that only listings based exclusively on traditional contract terms as dictated by Realcomp will be forwarded by the Realcomp MLS to be shown to the general public on Approved websites, and thereby eliminate certain forms of competition. The acts and practices have no cognizable and plausible efficiency justifications and are inherently suspect restraints of trade.

PARAGRAPH 26. The acts and practices of Realcomp described herein constitute a concerted refusal to deal by competitors, except on specified terms, with respect to services that are necessary for the provision of effective residential real estate brokerage services. As such, the acts and practices are inherently suspect restraints of trade that have no cognizable and plausible efficiency justifications.

PARAGRAPH 27. The purposes, capacities, tendencies, or effects of the policies, acts, or practices of Realcomp and its members as described herein have been and are unreasonably to restrain competition among brokers, and to injure consumers, in the market for provision of residential real estate brokerage services within Southeastern Michigan and/or the Realcomp Service Area.

PARAGRAPH 28. The policies, acts, practices, and combinations or conspiracies described herein constitute unfair methods of competition in or affecting interstate commerce in violation of Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to the Respondent that the eighth day of January, 2007, at 10:00a.m., or such later date as determined by an Administrative Law Judge of the Federal Trade Commission, is hereby fixed as the time and Federal Trade Commission offices, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580, as the place when and where a hearing will be had before an Administrative Law Judge of the Federal Trade Commission, on the charges set forth in this complaint, at which time and place you will have the right under the FTC Act to appear and show cause why an order should not be entered requiring you to cease and desist from the violations of law charged in the complaint.

You are notified that the opportunity is afforded to you to file with the Commission an answer to this complaint on or before the twentieth (20th) day after service of it upon you. An answer in which the allegations of the complaint are contested shall contain a concise statement of the facts constituting each ground of defense; and specific admission, denial, or explanation of each fact alleged in the complaint or, if you are without knowledge thereof, a statement to that effect. Allegations of the complaint not thus answered shall be deemed to have been admitted.

If you elect not to contest the allegations of fact set forth in the complaint, the answer shall consist of a statement that you admit all of the material facts to be true. Such an answer shall constitute a waiver of hearings as to the facts alleged in the complaint and, together with the complaint, will provide a record basis on which the Administrative Law Judge shall file an initial decision containing appropriate findings and conclusions and an appropriate order disposing of the proceeding. In such answer, you may, however, reserve the right to submit proposed findings and conclusions under Rule 3.46 of the Commission's Rules of Practice for Adjudicative Proceedings and the right to appeal the initial decision to the Commission under Rule 3.52.

Failure to answer within the time above provided shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of your right to appear and contest the allegations of the complaint and shall authorize the Administrative Law Judge, without further notice to you, to find the facts to be as alleged in the complaint and to enter an initial decision containing such findings, appropriate conclusions, and order.

The ALJ will schedule an initial prehearing scheduling conference to be held not later than 14 days after the last answer is filed by any party named as a Respondent in the complaint. Unless otherwise directed by the ALJ, the scheduling conference and further proceedings will take place at the Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Room 532, Washington, D.C. 20580. Rule 3.21(a) requires a meeting of the parties' counsel as early as practicable before the prehearing scheduling conference, and Rule 3.31(b) obligates counsel for each party, within 5 days of receiving a Respondent's answer, to make certain initial disclosures without awaiting a formal discovery request.

NOTICE OF CONTEMPLATED RELIEF

The following is the form of order which the Commission has reason to believe should issue if the facts are found to be as alleged in the complaint. If, however, the Commission should conclude from record facts developed in any adjudicative proceedings in this matter that the proposed order provisions might be inadequate to fully remedy the violation of the FTC Act, the Commission may order such other or further relief as it finds necessary or appropriate.
