Correlate to page x and line x

Page 18, line 24 should read "motive power" rather than "motive, power"

Page 33, line 24 should read "the figure is in euros" rather than "the figure in euros"

Page 52, line 25 should read "the investment requires a multi-year contract" rather than "the investment requires a high-year multi-year contract".

Page 60, line 11 should read "VRLA – AGM and a whole other bunch" rather than "VRLA, AGM and a whole other bunch". [Clarification : there are two types of VRLA batteries : gel and AGM ; as a consequence the distinction between VRLA – Gel and VRLA – AGM is important ; besides VRLA batteries there are flooded batteries]

Page 62, line 25 to Page 63, line 2. There is something wrong with the question. In any case, the question doesn't correspond to the answer, I guess wrong or missing word. Obviously I do not know how many batteries Exide makes nor does this question really makes sense as we are talking about separators. Neither would anybody at Exide know this. A question that would make sense would inquire after separator volume used by Exide.

Page 68, line 2 should read "sent, and after, before or after" rather than "send, an after, before or after".

Page 74, lines 7-8 should read "for some motive power" rather than "before, some motive power"

Page 101, line 8 should read "what interests us, is picking up rumors ..." rather than "what interests us is picking up ..."

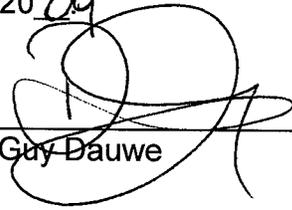

Page 165, line 25 and page 166, line 1. I am fairly sure I did not say "to the extent that Mr. Martin would have talked to Mr. Hauswald". This answer is also non-sensical. In any case, I would have said that Mr. Martin would not have talked Mr. Hauswald.

Page 186, line 8 should read "for my part, not that I don't want" rather than "for my part, that I don't want".

Page 186, line 10 should read "add this for all my comments 'to the best of my recollection' "rather than "add this and all my comment to the best of my recollection"
