DOCKET NO. 9330

NOTICE

The Federal Trade Commission issued the Administrative Complaint in this matter on September 16, 2008. Administrative Law Judge D. Michael Chappell issued an Initial Decision and Order dismissing the Complaint on September 16, 2009, and service of the Initial Decision and Order was completed on October 8, 2009. Former Commission Rule 3.51(a), 16 C.F.R. § 3.51(a) (2009), provides in relevant part that if a Notice of Appeal from an Initial Decision is not filed, and certain other actions are not taken, the Initial Decision shall become the Decision of the Commission on the thirtieth day after service.¹ Neither Complaint Counsel nor Respondents filed a Notice of Appeal from the Initial Decision in this matter, and the Initial Decision became the Decision of the Commission on November 9, 2009.

Donald S. Clark
Secretary

Issued: December 8, 2009

¹ Former Commission Rule 3.51(a) provided that an Initial Decision shall become the decision of the Commission thirty (30) days after service thereof upon the parties or thirty (30) days after the filing of a timely notice of appeal, whichever shall be later, unless a party filing such a notice shall have perfected an appeal by the timely filing of an appeal brief or the Commission shall have issued an order placing the case on its own docket for review or staying the effective date of the decision.

Because the Administrative Complaint in this matter was issued in 2008, former Commission Rule 3.51(a) applies to this proceeding.
