DOCKET NO. 9341

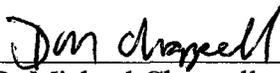

ORDER ON UNOPPOSED MOTION OF NON-PARTIES HEWLETT-PACKARD COMPANY AND ROBERT SKITOL FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO MOVE TO LIMIT OR QUASH SUBPOENA AD TESTIFICANDUM

On June 11, 2010, non-parties Hewlett-Packard Company (“HP”) and Robert Skitol (“Skitol”) (collectively, the “Non-parties”) submitted an Unopposed Motion for Extension of Time, seeking an extension of the time permitted to move to limit or quash a subpoena ad testificandum issued to Skitol by Respondent Intel Corporation.

The Non-parties state that HP accepted service of the subpoena on June 1, 2010, and that, under the Commission’s Rules of Practice, the time for the Non-parties to submit a motion to limit or quash the subpoena would expire on June 11, 2010. The Non-parties seek an extension of time until July 30, 2010, so the parties may try to reach agreement regarding the subpoena, and state that Respondent does not oppose such extension. The Non-parties provided no basis for needing a seven week extension of time to July 30, 2010.

Based on the foregoing, the Non-parties’ motion for extension of time is GRANTED. However, the Non-parties shall have until June 30, 2010, rather than July 30, 2010, to file a motion to limit or quash the subpoena ad testificandum to Skitol served by Respondent on June 1, 2010. If additional time is necessary, the Non-parties shall provide a justification in support of any further motion.
