AFFIDAVIT OF RANDY A. HANSCHU

RANDY A. HANSCHU, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am over the age of eighteen years and I make this affidavit on personal knowledge of its content and in further support of Respondent’s Third Motion to Reopen the Hearing Record.

2. I am a Senior Technical Sales Manager of Daramic L.L.C. (“Daramic”), a subsidiary of Respondent Polypore International, Inc. and have been employed by Daramic for approximately 22 years. In my current position with Daramic, I am responsible for certain customer relationships, including Daramic’s relationship with Superior Battery (“Superior”). Superior manufactures golf cart batteries and is a current customer of Daramic.

3. In May 2010, I attended the annual convention held by Battery Council International (“BCI”) in Austin, Texas. On May 4, 2010, I met with Randy Hart, President of Superior, and Tucker Roe, Daramic’s Vice President Sales and Marketing for the Americas & EMEA, for a lunch meeting. During that meeting, Mr. Roe, Mr. Hart and I discussed Superior’s future needs for separators for use in Superior’s golf cart batteries. Mr. Hart told me that {

} Mr. Hart also said that { commented that { }.

}. Mr. Hart said that { }.

}. Finally, Mr. Hart commented that Superior's customers required { }.

}. Based on his comments regarding {

}, I concluded from his statements that he was referring to { }.

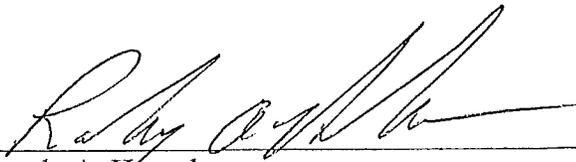

4. Following the BCI meeting, I telephoned Randy Hart several times to inquire if Superior had received { }. On June 16, 2010, I telephoned Mr. Hart again and was transferred to Todd Wilson, head of procurement at Superior. During that call, Mr. Wilson told me that Superior had just received { }.

5. Following my conversation with Mr. Wilson, I spoke with Steve McDonald, Daramic's Sales Manager for the Americas, and asked him to pick up the sample from Mr. Wilson at Superior since he already planned to be in the area the following day. Mr. McDonald agreed to do so.

6. The first time I had heard that { } was at my meeting with Mr. Hart at the BCI convention on May 4, 2010.

Further Affiant sayeth not.

Sworn to this 29 day of June, 2010.

Randy A. Hanschu
