UNDER SEAL
Case No. 6:11-cv-1186-Orl-28GJK

EX PARTE TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER WITH ANCILLARY RELIEF

Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission (“FTC” or the “Commission”), pursuant to Section 13(b) of the Federal Trade Commission Act (“FTC Act”), 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), has filed a Complaint for a Permanent Injunction and Other Equitable Relief (the “Complaint”), including consumer redress, and has moved ex parte for a temporary restraining order and for an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be granted pursuant to Rule 65(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Court, having considered the Complaint, the Commission's Ex Parte Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order with Ancillary Equitable Relief and Order to show Cause Why a Preliminary Injunction Should Not Be Granted, declarations and exhibits, and the memorandum of filed in support thereof, and being otherwise advised, finds as follows:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case, and there is good cause to believe it will have jurisdiction over all parties hereto;
2. There is good cause to believe that venue lies properly with this Court;
3. There is good cause to believe that Defendants Direct Benefits Group, LLC, Voice Net Global, LLC, Solid Core Solutions, Inc., WKMS, Inc., Kyle Wood, and Mark Berry (collectively, "Defendants"), have engaged in and are likely to engage in acts and practices that violate Section 5(a) of the Federal Trade Commission Act;
4. There is good cause to believe that the Commission is likely to prevail on the merits of this action. The evidence set forth in the Commission's Memorandum in Support of its Ex Parte Motion ("Memorandum"), and the accompanying declarations and exhibits, demonstrates that Defendants have engaged in unfair and deceptive acts or practices in violation of Section 5 of the FTC Act by acquiring consumer's bank account information when those consumers apply for payday loans online and then, without notice to the consumers, debiting those consumers' bank accounts. There is good cause to believe that

Defendants will continue such illegal actions if not restrained from doing so by Order of this Court;

5. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to this Court's ability to grant effective final relief for consumers, including monetary restitution, rescission or refunds, will occur from the sale, transfer, or other disposition by Defendants of their Assets and company records, or those Assets and company records under their control, unless Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined by Order of this Court. There is thus good cause for an asset freeze, the appointment of a Temporary Receiver over the Receivership Defendants, as defined herein, immediate access to Defendants' business premises, and for relieving the FTC of the duty to provide Defendants with prior notice of its motion. Based on the foregoing, there is good cause to issue this order on an ex parte basis;

6. There is good cause for appointing a Temporary Receiver for Defendants Direct Benefits Group, LLC, Voice Net Global, LLC, Solid Core Solutions, Inc., and WKMS, Inc.;

7. Weighing the equities and considering the Commission's likelihood of ultimate success on the merits, a Temporary Restraining Order with asset freeze and other equitable relief is in the public interest;

8. There is good cause for issuing this Temporary Restraining Order pursuant to Rule 65(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; and

9. The FTC is an independent agency of the United States of America. No security is required of any agency of the United States for the issuance of a Temporary Restraining Order. Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(c).

DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Temporary Restraining Order, the following definitions apply:

1. “Assets” means any legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, any and all real and personal property of Defendants, or held for the benefit of Defendants, including but not limited to chattel, goods, real estate, instruments, equipment, fixtures, general intangibles, effects, leaseholds, inventory, checks, notes, accounts, credits, receivables, shares of stock, contracts, and all cash and currency, or other assets, or any interest therein, wherever located.
2. “Defendants” means Defendants Direct Benefits Group, LLC, Voice Net Global, LLC, Solid Core Solutions, Inc., WKMS, Inc., Kyle Wood, and Mark Berry.
3. “Document” is synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the terms “document” and “electronically stored information,” as described and used in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a)(1)(A).
4. “Plaintiff” means the Federal Trade Commission (“Commission” or “FTC”).
5. “Receivership Defendants” means Direct Benefits Group, LLC, Voice Net Global, LLC, Solid Core Solutions, Inc., WKMS, Inc., and their subsidiaries, affiliates, divisions, successors, and assigns, and includes fictitious names under which they do business, including but not limited to Direct Benefits Online, Unified Savings, and Thrifty Dial.
6. “Temporary Receiver” means the Temporary Receiver appointed in Section VII of this Order. The term “Temporary Receiver” also includes any deputy receivers or agents as may be named by the Temporary Receiver.

I.

PROHIBITED BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that, in connection with the advertising, marketing, promotion, offering for sale, or sale of any products, goods, or services, Defendants and their successors, assigns, officers, agents, servants, employees, or attorneys, and any person or entity in active concert or participation with them who receives actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, whether acting directly or through any entity, corporation, subsidiary, division, affiliate, or other device, are hereby temporarily restrained and enjoined from:

- A. Obtaining consumers' bank account information and other personally identifiable information or debiting those accounts without consumers' express informed consent;
- B. Failing to disclose or disclose adequately that Defendants will charge consumers when consumers apply for a payday loan or other good or service advertised, promoted, offered for sale, or sold by Defendants; and
- C. Making, or assisting others in the making of, expressly or by implication, any material misrepresentations, including but not limited to:
 1. That Defendants will use consumers' authorizations to consider consumers' payday loan applications or provide payday loans; or
 2. That consumers agreed:
 - a. to enroll in Defendants' programs or alleged programs; or

- b. to pay charges associated with Defendants' programs or alleged programs.

II.

ASSET FREEZE

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants are hereby temporarily restrained and enjoined from directly or indirectly:

- A. Transferring, liquidating, converting, encumbering, pledging, loaning, selling, concealing, dissipating, disbursing, assigning, spending, withdrawing, granting a lien or security interest or other interest in, or otherwise disposing of any funds, real or personal property, accounts, contracts, consumer lists, or any other assets, or any interest therein, wherever located, including outside the United States, that are:
 - 1. owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by any Defendant(s), in whole or in part, or held, in whole or in part for the benefit of any Defendant(s);
 - 2. in the actual or constructive possession of any Defendant(s);
 - 3. owned, controlled by, or in the actual or constructive possession of any corporation, partnership, or other entity directly or indirectly owned, managed, or controlled by, or under common control with any Defendant(s), including, but not limited to, any assets of Direct Benefits Group, LLC, Voice Net Global, LLC, Solid Core Solutions,

Inc., WKMS, Inc., or any other entity acting under a fictitious name owned by or controlled by any Defendant(s), and any assets held by, for, or under the name of any Defendant(s) at any bank, savings and loan institution, or bank of any Defendant(s), or with any broker-dealer, escrow agent, title company, commodity trading company, payment processing company, precious metal dealer, or other financial institution or depository of any kind;

- B. Opening or causing to be opened any safe deposit boxes titled in the name of any Defendant(s), or subject to access by any Defendant(s);
- C. Incurring charges or cash advances on any credit card, debit card, or checking card issued in the name, singly or jointly, of any Defendant(s);
- D. Obtaining a personal or secured loan;
- E. Incurring liens or encumbrances on real property, personal property or other assets in the name, singly or jointly, of any Defendant(s); and
- F. Cashing any checks from consumers, clients, or customers of any Defendant(s).

Provided, that the assets affected by this Section shall include: (1) all assets of Defendants as of the time this Order is entered; and (2) for assets obtained after the time this Order is entered, those assets of Defendants that are derived, directly or indirectly, from the Defendants' activities related to the marketing and sale of payday loans or payday loan application services or any programs as described in the Commission's Complaint.

This Section does not prohibit transfers to the Temporary Receiver, as specifically required in Section X (Delivery of Receivership Property), nor does it prohibit the repatriation of foreign assets, as specifically required in Section V (Repatriation of Foreign Assets) of this Order.

III.

FINANCIAL REPORTS AND ACCOUNTING

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each Defendant shall:

- A. Prepare and serve on counsel for the FTC and the Temporary Receiver, within fourteen (14) days after service of this Order or such other time as may be ordered in any preliminary injunction that is entered, completed financial statements fully disclosing the Defendants' finances and those of all corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, trusts or other entities that each Defendant owns, controls, or is associated with in any capacity, jointly or individually, on the forms attached to this Order as Attachments A and B, accurate as of the date of service of this Order upon Defendants;
- B. Prepare and serve on counsel for the FTC and the Temporary Receiver, within fourteen (14) days after service of this Order or such other time as may be ordered in any preliminary injunction that is entered, copies of signed and completed federal and state income tax forms, including all schedules and attachments, for the three most recent filing years;
- C. Provide access to records and documents held by financial institutions outside the territory of the United States, by signing the Consent to Release of Financial Records attached to this Order as Attachment C, immediately upon service of this Order upon them; and

- D. Provide copies of such other financial statements as the Temporary Receiver or the FTC may request in order to monitor Defendants' compliance with the provisions of this Order.

IV.

RETENTION OF ASSETS AND RECORDS BY FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS AND THIRD PARTIES

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any financial or brokerage institution or depository, escrow agent, title company, commodity trading company, payment processing company, trust, entity, or person that: (1) holds, controls, or maintains custody of any account or asset owned or controlled by any Defendant(s); (2) holds, controls, or maintains custody of any asset associated with credit or debit card charges, electronic fund transfers, or remotely created checks made by, or on behalf of, any Defendant(s) or any other entity owned or controlled by any Defendant(s); or (3) has held, controlled, or maintained any account or asset of, or on behalf of, any Defendant(s) at any time since January 1, 2009, upon service with a copy of this Order, shall:

- A. Hold and retain within its control and prohibit Defendants or any other person or entity with control over such assets from withdrawing, removing, assigning, transferring, pledging, encumbering, disbursing, dissipating, converting, selling, gifting, or otherwise disposing of any such assets, funds, or other property, except:

1. As directed by further order of the Court; or
 2. As directed in writing by the Temporary Receiver (regarding assets held in the name or for the benefit of Receivership Defendant).
- B. Deny the Defendants access to any safe deposit box titled in the name of any Defendant(s), individually or jointly, or subject to access by any Defendant(s), whether directly or indirectly.
- C. Provide counsel for the FTC and the Temporary Receiver, within seven (7) business days after being served with a copy of this Order, a certified statement setting forth:
1. The identification number of each such account or asset titled: (1) in the name, individually or jointly, of any Defendant(s); (2) held on behalf of, or for the benefit of, any Defendant(s); (3) owned or controlled by any Defendant(s); or (4) otherwise subject to access by any Defendant(s), directly or indirectly;
 2. The balance of each such account, or a description of the nature and value of such asset, as of the close of business on the day on which this Order is served, and, if the account or other asset has been closed or removed, the date closed or removed, the total funds removed in order to close the account, and the name of the person or entity to whom

- such account or other asset was remitted;
3. The identification of any safe deposit box that is either titled in the name of any Defendant(s), or is otherwise subject to access by any Defendant(s); and
 4. If an account, safe deposit box, or other asset has been closed or removed, the date closed or removed, the balance of any account or value of any asset on such date, and the manner in which such account or asset was closed or removed.
- D. Provide counsel for the FTC and the Temporary Receiver, within seven (7) business days after being served with a request, copies of all documents pertaining to such account or asset, including but not limited to originals or copies of account applications, account statements, signature cards, checks, drafts, deposit tickets, transfers to and from the accounts, all other debit and credit instruments or slips, currency transaction reports, 1099 forms, and safe deposit box logs; provided that such institution or custodian may charge a reasonable fee.
- E. Cooperate with all reasonable requests of the Temporary Receiver relating to this Order's implementation.

V.

REPATRIATION OF FOREIGN ASSETS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, within seven (7) business days following the service of this Order, each Defendant shall:

- A. Provide counsel for the FTC and the Temporary Receiver with a full accounting of all funds and assets outside of the territory of the United States which are held either: (1) by Defendant(s); (2) for the benefit of any Defendant(s); or (3) under direct or indirect control, individually or jointly, of any Defendant(s), as required by the forms included in Attachments A and B;
- B. Transfer to the territory of the United States all such funds and assets in foreign countries; and
- C. Hold and retain all repatriated funds and assets, and prevent any disposition, transfer, or dissipation whatsoever of any such assets or funds, except as required by this Order.

VI.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH REPATRIATION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, and each of their successors, assigns, members, officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, whether acting directly or through any entity, corporation, subsidiary, division, affiliate or other device, are hereby temporarily restrained and enjoined from taking any action, directly or indirectly, that may result in the encumbrance or dissipation of foreign assets, or in the hindrance of the repatriation required by Section V of this Order, including but not limited to:

- A. Sending any statement, letter, fax, e-mail, or wire transmission, telephoning or engaging in any other act, directly or indirectly, that results in a determination by a foreign trustee or other entity that a “duress” event has occurred under the terms of a foreign trust agreement, until such time that all assets have been fully repatriated pursuant to Section V of this Order; and
- B. Notifying any trustee, protector, or other agent of any foreign trust or other related entities of either the existence of this Order, or of the fact that repatriation is required pursuant to a Court Order, until such time that all assets have been fully repatriated pursuant to Section V of this Order.

VII.

APPOINTMENT OF TEMPORARY RECEIVER

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Brian McDowell is appointed Temporary Receiver for the Receivership Defendants, and any affiliates or subsidiaries thereof controlled by any Receivership Defendant, with the full power of an equity Receiver. The Temporary Receiver shall be the agent of this Court and solely the agent of this Court in acting as Temporary Receiver under this Order. The Temporary Receiver shall be accountable directly to this Court. The Temporary Receiver shall comply with all local rules and laws governing federal equity receivers.

VIII.

COOPERATION WITH THE TEMPORARY RECEIVER

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants shall fully cooperate with and assist the Temporary Receiver. Defendants' cooperation and assistance shall include, but not be limited to, providing any information to the Temporary Receiver that the Temporary Receiver deems necessary to exercise the authority and discharge the responsibilities of the Temporary Receiver under this Order; providing any login and password required to access any computer or electronic files or information in any medium; and advising all persons who owe money to the Receivership Defendants that all debts should be paid directly to the Temporary Receiver.

Defendants are hereby restrained and enjoined from directly or indirectly:

- A. Transacting any of the business of the Receivership Defendants;
- B. Excusing debts owed to the Receivership Defendants;
- C. Destroying, secreting, defacing, transferring, or otherwise altering or disposing of any documents of the Receivership Defendants;
- D. Transferring, receiving, altering, selling, encumbering, pledging, assigning, liquidating, or otherwise disposing of any assets owned, controlled, or in the possession or custody of, or in which an interest is held or claimed by, the Receivership Defendants, or the Temporary Receiver;
- E. Failing to notify the Temporary Receiver of any asset, including accounts, of the Receivership Defendants held in any name other than the name of the Receivership Defendants, or by any person or entity other than the Receivership Defendants, or failing to provide any assistance or information requested by the Temporary Receiver in connection with obtaining possession, custody, or control of such assets; or

- F. Doing any act or thing whatsoever to interfere with the Temporary Receiver's taking and keeping custody, control, possession, or managing of the assets or documents subject to this receivership; or to harass or interfere with the Temporary Receiver in any way; or to interfere in any manner with the exclusive jurisdiction of this Court over the assets or documents of the Receivership Defendants; or to refuse to cooperate with the Temporary Receiver or the Temporary Receiver's duly authorized agents in the exercise of their duties or authority under any Order of this Court.

This Section does not prohibit transfers to the Temporary Receiver, as specifically required in Section X (Delivery of Receivership Property), nor does it prohibit the Repatriation of Foreign Assets, as specifically required in Section V (Repatriation of Foreign Assets) of this Order.

IX.

DUTIES AND AUTHORITY OF TEMPORARY RECEIVER

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Temporary Receiver is directed and authorized to accomplish the following:

- A. Assume full control of the Receivership Defendants by removing, as the Temporary Receiver deems necessary or advisable, any director, officer, independent contractor, employee, attorney, or agent of the Receivership Defendants, including Defendants Kyle Wood and Mark Berry, from control of, management of, or participation in, the affairs of the Receivership Defendants.

- B. Take exclusive custody, control, and possession of all assets and documents of, or in the possession, custody, or under the control of, the Receivership Defendants, wherever situated. The Temporary Receiver shall have full power to collect and divert mail and to sue for, collect, receive, take possession of, hold, and manage all assets and documents of the Receivership Defendants and other persons or entities whose interests are now held by or under the direction, possession, custody, or control of the Receivership Defendants.
- C. Take all steps necessary to secure the business premises of the Receivership Defendants, which may include, but are not limited to, taking the following steps as the Temporary Receiver deems necessary or advisable: (1) serving and filing this Order; (2) completing a written inventory of all receivership assets; (3) obtaining pertinent information from all employees and other agents of the Receivership Defendants, including, but not limited to, the name, home address, social security number, job description, method of compensation, and all accrued and unpaid commissions and compensation of each such employee or agent; (4) video-recording all portions of the location; (5) changing the locks and, and in cooperation with the FTC forensic contractors, disconnecting any computer networks or other means of access to electronically stored information or other documents maintained at that location; or (6) requiring any persons present on the premises at the time this Order is served to leave the premises, to provide the Temporary Receiver with proof of identification, and/or to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Temporary Receiver that such persons are not removing from the premises documents or assets of the Receivership Defendants. Such authority shall include, but not be limited to, the authority to order any owner, director, or officer of any Receivership Defendants to leave the business premises.

- D. Conserve, hold, and manage all receivership assets, and perform all acts necessary or advisable to preserve the value of those assets, in order to prevent any irreparable loss, damage, or injury to consumers, including, but not limited to, obtaining an accounting of the assets and preventing the transfer, withdrawal, or misapplication of assets.
- E. Enter into contracts and purchase insurance as advisable or necessary.
- F. Prevent the inequitable distribution of assets and to determine, adjust, and protect the interests of consumers and creditors who have transacted business with one or more Receivership Defendants.
- G. Manage and administer the business of the Receivership Defendants until further order of this Court by performing all incidental acts that the Temporary Receiver deems to be advisable or necessary, which includes retaining, hiring, or dismissing any employees, independent contractors, or agents.
- H. Choose, engage, and employ attorneys, accountants, appraisers, investigators, and other independent contractors and technical specialists, as the Temporary Receiver deems advisable or necessary in the performance of duties and responsibilities.

- I. Make payments and disbursements from the receivership estate that are necessary or advisable for carrying out the directions of, or exercising the authority granted by, this Order. The Temporary Receiver shall apply to the Court for prior approval of any payment of any debt or obligation incurred by the Receivership Defendant prior to the date of entry of this Order, except payments that the Temporary Receiver deems necessary or advisable to secure assets of the Receivership Defendant, such as rental payments.
- J. Collect any money due or owing to the Receivership Defendants.
- K. Institute, compromise, adjust, appear in, intervene in, or become party to such actions or proceedings in state, federal or foreign courts that the Temporary Receiver deems necessary and advisable to preserve or recover the assets of the Receivership Defendants or to carry out the Temporary Receiver's mandate under this Order.
- L. Defend, compromise, adjust, or otherwise dispose of any or all actions or proceedings instituted against the Receivership Defendants or the Temporary Receiver that the Temporary Receiver deems necessary and advisable to preserve the assets of the Receivership Defendants or to carry out the Temporary Receiver's mandate under this Order.
- M. Continue and conduct the businesses of the Receivership Defendants in such manner, to such extent, and for such duration as the Temporary Receiver may in good faith deem to be necessary or appropriate to operate the businesses profitably, using the assets of the receivership estate, and lawfully, if at all.

- N. Take depositions and issue subpoenas to obtain documents and records pertaining to the receivership and compliance with this Order. Subpoenas may be served by agents or attorneys of the Temporary Receiver and by agents of any process server retained by the Temporary Receiver.
- O. Open one or more bank accounts as designated depositories for funds of the Receivership Defendants. The Temporary Receiver shall deposit all funds of the Receivership Defendants in such a designated account and shall make all payments and disbursements from the receivership estate from such an account.
- P. Maintain accurate records of all receipts and expenditures made by the Temporary Receiver.

DELIVERY OF RECEIVERSHIP PROPERTY

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that immediately upon service of this Order upon them, the Defendants, including the Receivership Defendants, shall forthwith or within such time as permitted by the Temporary Receiver in writing, deliver to the Temporary Receiver possession and custody of:

- A. All funds, assets, and property of the Receivership Defendants, whether situated within or outside the territory of the United States, that are: (1) held by the Receivership Defendants, (2) held for the benefit of the Receivership Defendants, or (3) under the direct or indirect control, individually or jointly, of the Receivership Defendants;

- B. All documents of the Receivership Defendants, including but not limited to all books and records of assets including funds and property, all financial and accounting records, balance sheets, income statements, bank records (including monthly statements, canceled checks, records of wire transfers, records of ACH transactions, and check registers), corporate minutes, contracts, customer and consumer lists, title documents, and electronic records;
- C. All funds and other assets belonging to members of the public now held by the Receivership Defendants;
- D. All keys, computer and other passwords, entry codes, combinations to locks required to open or gain access to any of the property or effects, and all monies in any bank deposited to the credit of the Receivership Defendants, wherever situated; and
- E. Information identifying the accounts, employees, properties, or other assets or obligations of the Receivership Defendants.

XI.

TRANSFER OF FUNDS TO THE TEMPORARY RECEIVER BY FINANCIAL

INSTITUTIONS AND OTHER THIRD PARTIES

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, upon service of a copy of this Order, any financial or brokerage institution or depository, escrow agent, title company, commodity trading company, payment processing company, or trust shall cooperate with all reasonable requests of counsel for the FTC and the Temporary Receiver relating to implementation of this Order, including transferring funds at the Temporary Receiver's direction and producing records related to the assets and sales of the Receivership Defendants.

XII.

TEMPORARY RECEIVER'S REPORTS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Temporary Receiver shall report to this Court on or before the date set for the hearing to Show Cause regarding the Preliminary Injunction, regarding: (1) the steps taken by the Temporary Receiver to implement the terms of this Order; (2) the value of all liquidated and unliquidated assets of the Receivership Defendants; (3) the sum of all liabilities of the Receivership Defendants; (4) the steps the Temporary Receiver intends to take in the future to: (a) prevent any diminution in the value of assets of the Receivership Defendants; (b) pursue receivership assets from third parties; and (c) adjust the liabilities of the Receivership Defendants, if appropriate; and (5) any other matters which the Temporary Receiver believes should be brought to the Court's attention. Provided, however, if any of the required information would hinder the Temporary Receiver's ability to pursue receivership assets, the portions of the Temporary Receiver's report containing such information may be filed under seal and not served on the parties.

XIII.

TEMPORARY RECEIVER'S BOND

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Temporary Receiver shall file with the Clerk of this Court a bond in the sum of $0.00, conditioned that the Temporary Receiver will well and truly perform the duties of the office and abide by and perform all acts the Court directs.

XIV.

COMPENSATION OF THE TEMPORARY RECEIVER

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Temporary Receiver, and all persons or entities retained or hired by the Temporary Receiver as authorized under this Order, shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for the performance of duties undertaken pursuant to this Order and for the cost of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them from the assets now held by or in the possession or control of, or which may be received by, the Receivership Defendants. The Temporary Receiver shall file with the Court and serve on the parties a request for the payment of reasonable compensation at the time of the filing of any report required by Section XII. The Temporary Receiver shall not increase the fees or rates used as the bases for such fee applications without prior approval of the Court.

XV.

ACCESS TO BUSINESS PREMISES AND RECORDS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Plaintiff and the Temporary Receiver, and their representatives, agents, and assistants, shall have immediate access to all business premises and storage facilities, owned, controlled, or used by Defendants, including, but not limited to, the offices and facilities of the Receivership Defendants at or in the vicinity of 14572 S. 790 W., Unit A, Suite 200, Bluffdale, Utah 84065, and any commercial mail boxes and executive suites, including, but not limited to, 1035 Primera Blvd., Suite 1041, Lake Mary, Florida 32746, used by the Receivership Defendants. The Plaintiff and the Temporary Receiver are authorized to employ the assistance of law enforcement officers as they deem necessary to effect service and peacefully implement this Order. The Plaintiff and the Temporary Receiver may exclude Defendants and Defendants' employees from the business premises during the immediate access. The purpose of the immediate access shall be to effect service and to inspect and copy documents and electronic data, including but not limited to, correspondence, emails, financial data, and other documents concerning Defendants' business practices and assets.

- A. The Plaintiff and the Temporary Receiver and their representatives, agents, and assistants, shall have the right to remove documents from the above-listed premises in order that they may be inspected, inventoried, and copied.
- B. The Plaintiff shall return any removed documents to the Temporary Receiver within five (5) business days of their removal.
- C. Defendants and all employees or agents of Defendants shall provide the Plaintiff and the Temporary Receiver with any necessary means of access to documents and records, including, without limitation, the locations of Defendants' business premises, keys and combinations to locks, computer access codes, and storage area access information.

- D. If any documents, records, property, computers or other electronic data storage devices containing information related to the business practices or finances of the Defendants are at a location other than those listed herein, including but not limited to, the personal residences of the Defendants, then immediately upon service of this Order upon them Defendants shall produce to the Temporary Receiver within forty-eight (48) hours all such documents, records, property, computers or other electronic data storage devices. In order to prevent the destruction of electronic data, upon service of this Order upon Defendants, any computers or other electronic data storage devices containing such information shall be powered down (turned off) in the normal course for the operating systems used on such devices and shall not be used until produced for copying and inspection, along with any codes needed for access.
- E. Within forty-eight (48) hours of service of this Order, each Defendant shall produce to the Temporary Receiver a list of all agents, employees, officers, servants and those persons in active concert and participation with them, who have been associated or done business with the Receivership Defendants.

XVI.

DEFENDANTS' ACCESS TO BUSINESS PREMISES AND RECORDS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Temporary Receiver shall allow the Defendants and their representatives reasonable access to the premises of the Receivership Defendants. The purpose of this access shall be to inspect, inventory, and copy any documents and other property owned by, or in the possession of, the Receivership Defendants, provided that said property and original documents are not removed from the premises without the permission of the Temporary Receiver. The Temporary Receiver shall have the discretion to determine the time, manner, and reasonable conditions of such access.

XVII.

PRESERVATION OF RECORDS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, and each of their successors, assigns, members, officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, whether acting directly or through any entity, corporation, subsidiary, division, affiliate or other device, are hereby temporarily restrained and enjoined from destroying, erasing, mutilating, concealing, altering, transferring, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, directly or indirectly, any documents that relate to the business practices or finances of any Defendant, including, but not limited to, any contracts, accounting data, correspondence, advertisements, computer tapes, disks or other computerized records, books, written or printed records, handwritten notes, recordings, telephone logs, telephone scripts, receipt books, ledgers, personal and business canceled checks and check registers, bank statements, appointment books, and copies of federal, state, or local business or personal income or property tax returns.

XVIII.

PROHIBITION ON USE OF CUSTOMER INFORMATION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, and officers, agents, directors, servants, employees, salespersons, and attorneys of Defendants, as well as all other persons or entities in active concert or participation with them, who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, whether acting directly or through any trust, corporation, subsidiary, division, or other device, or any of them, are hereby temporarily restrained and enjoined from using, benefitting from, selling, renting, leasing, transferring, or otherwise disclosing the name, address, telephone number, email address, social security number, credit card number, debit card number, bank account number, any financial account number, or any data that enables access to a customer's account, or other identifying information of any person which any Defendant obtained prior to entry of this Order in connection with the marketing or sale of any good or service, including those who were contacted or are on a list to be contacted by any of the Defendants; provided that Defendants may disclose such identifying information to a law enforcement agency or as required by any law, regulation, or court order.

XIX.

CREDIT REPORTS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Plaintiff may obtain credit reports concerning any of the Defendants pursuant to Section 604(a)(1) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681b(a)(1), and that, upon written request, any credit reporting agency from which such reports are requested shall provide them to Plaintiff.

XX.

RECORDKEEPING/BUSINESS OPERATIONS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants are hereby temporarily restrained and enjoined from:

- A. Failing to create and maintain documents that, in reasonable detail, accurately, fairly, and completely reflect their incomes, disbursements, transactions, and use of money; and
- B. Creating, operating, or exercising any control over any business entity, including any partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, limited liability company or corporation, without first providing the Commission with a written statement disclosing: (1) the name of the business entity; (2) the address and telephone number of the business entity; (3) the names of the business entity's officers, directors, principals, managers and employees; and (4) a detailed description of the business entity's intended activities.

XXVII.

EXPEDITED DISCOVERY

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the FTC is granted leave to conduct certain expedited discovery, and that, commencing with the time and date of this Order, in lieu of the time periods, notice provisions, and other requirements of Rules 26, 30, 31, 33, and 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, expedited discovery as to parties and non-parties shall proceed as follows:

- A. The FTC may, upon seven (7) calendar days' notice, take the deposition, including by telephone, of any principal or agent of any of the Defendants, whether or not a party, in any judicial district, for the purpose of discovering the nature, location, status, and extent of the assets of Defendants, and Defendants' affiliates and subsidiaries; the nature and location of Documents reflecting the business transactions of Defendants, and Defendants' affiliates and subsidiaries; the location of any premises where Defendants, directly or through any third party, conduct business operations; the Defendants' identities and whereabouts; and/or the applicability of any evidentiary privileges to this action. The extent to which deposition transcripts that have not been signed by the witness may be used at the preliminary injunction hearing in this matter will be determined by the presiding judge.

- B. The FTC may serve interrogatories on the Defendants for the purpose of discovering the nature, location, status, and extent of the assets of Defendants, and Defendants' affiliates and subsidiaries; the nature and location of Documents reflecting the business transactions of Defendants, and Defendants' affiliates and subsidiaries; the location of any premises where Defendants, directly or through any third party, conduct business operations; the Defendants' identities and whereabouts; and/or the applicability of any evidentiary privileges to this action. Defendants shall respond within seven (7) calendar days after the FTC serves such interrogatories.
- C. The FTC may serve requests for the production of Documents from any principal or agent of any of the Defendants, whether or not a party, relating to the nature, location, status, and extent of the assets of Defendants, and Defendants' affiliates and subsidiaries; the nature and location of Documents reflecting the business transactions of Defendants, and Defendants' affiliates and subsidiaries; the location of any premises where Defendants, directly or through any third party, conduct business operations; the Defendants' identities and whereabouts; and/or the applicability of any evidentiary privileges to this action.

- D. The FTC may, in accordance with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45, demand the production of documents from any person or entity, whether or not a Defendant, relating to the nature, location, status, and extent of the assets of Defendants, and Defendants' affiliates and subsidiaries; the nature and location of Documents reflecting the business transactions of Defendants, and Defendants' affiliates and subsidiaries; the location of any premises where Defendants, directly or through any third party, conduct business operations; the Defendants' identities and whereabouts; and/or the applicability of any evidentiary privileges to this action.

For purposes of discovery pursuant to this Section, service upon the Defendants shall be sufficient if made by facsimile, electronic mail, or by overnight courier. Service upon non-parties shall be perfected in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

XXVIII.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE REGARDING PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(b), that Defendants shall appear before United States District Judge John Antoon II on Thursday, the 28th day of July, 2011, at 3:00 p.m. at the United States Courthouse Annex, 401 W. Central Boulevard, Courtroom 6B, Orlando, Florida, to show cause, if any there be, why this Court should not enter a preliminary injunction pending final ruling on the Complaint against Defendants, enjoining them from further violations of Section 5(a) of the Federal Trade Commission Act, continuing the freeze of their assets, appointing a permanent receiver and imposing such additional relief as may be appropriate.

XXIX.

DURATION OF ORDER

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Temporary Restraining Order granted herein shall expire on Friday, the 29th day of July, 2011, at 5:00 p.m., unless within such time, the Order, for good cause shown, is extended for an additional period not to exceed fourteen (14) calendar days, is further extended pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65, or is sooner dissolved at the preliminary injunction hearing.

XXX.

RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Court shall continue to retain jurisdiction of this matter for all purposes unless terminated by operation of law or Order of this Court.

DONE and ORDERED this 19th day of July, 2011, at 3:17 o'clock p.m.

MARY S. SCRIVEN
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
