APPENDIX E

APPENDIX E

To settle concerns arising from CoStar Group, Inc.'s ("CoStar") proposed acquisition of LoopNet, Inc. ("LoopNet"), CoStar has agreed to enter into a consent order (the "Order") with the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). This document explains some provisions of the Order that may affect how CoStar does business with you. The FTC and CoStar agreed that CoStar would send this document to you to be sure you are aware of the Order and its key terms.

This Order does not impose obligations on you. Rather, it gives you certain rights in your business dealings with CoStar. Below is a brief description of those rights, and directions on how you can get more information about the FTC's Order.

You are defined in the Order as a "Currently Restricted Customer," meaning that the Order grants you new rights under your contract with CoStar. First, CoStar must quickly modify your contract to allow you, if you want: (1) to provide commercial real estate listings and information derived independently from CoStar's databases to CoStar's competitors; (2) to subscribe to a commercial real estate listings or information product offered by CoStar's competitors; (3) to invest in CoStar's competitors (up to a limit); and (4) to endorse publicly services or products marketed by CoStar's competitors.

But if you decide to modify your contract with CoStar so as to allow you to provide commercial real estate listings and information to CoStar's competitors, or if you choose to make a passive investment of 10% or more of the equity in a CoStar competitor, the Order permits CoStar to require you to keep records to verify that any of the listings or information provided to CoStar's competitors were derived independently of CoStar's databases. CoStar also may require you to agree to occasional confidential audits conducted by a monitor, who the FTC has appointed at CoStar's expense, to verify that information from CoStar's database has not been provided to CoStar's competitors. The Order further permits CoStar to prohibit you from acquiring an interest of greater than 20% in a CoStar competitor or from participating in the management of a CoStar competitor. In addition, the Order allows CoStar to prohibit you from making your employees available on a regular or recurring basis to gather information for CoStar's competitors. These limitations may be part of the contract modification.

Also, if you have a contract with CoStar that has a term longer than 1 year, the Order allows you to terminate the contract, for any reason and without payment or penalty of any kind, on 1 year's written notice.

The Order also protects you from the early termination of your contract by CoStar except in certain circumstances. With a few exceptions, CoStar may not terminate its services without prior notice to you, unless: (1) CoStar obtains an order from a judge or an arbitrator; or (2) CoStar follows a procedure outlined in the Order that requires CoStar to provide written notice of the termination to the monitor, discuss the reasons for the termination with you within 2 days after the termination, and follow other steps. In many circumstances, you will have the right to arbitrate any contract dispute with CoStar.

The Order also ensures that CoStar will not penalize you if you provide commercial real estate listings or information to CoStar's competitors, endorse or invest in CoStar's competitors, or exercise your right to terminate a multi-year contract. CoStar may continue to charge different prices and offer different products to its customers, and may terminate or decline to renew contracts if customers refuse to agree to the contract terms permitted by the Order. However, the Order generally ensures that CoStar will not offer less favorable prices, product offerings, or other contract terms, and will not terminate your relationship with CoStar because you are doing business with CoStar's competitors.

The Order gives you additional protections with respect to how you purchase CoStar products. For example, CoStar may not require you to subscribe to one of CoStar's products as a condition to subscribing to another CoStar product. Similarly, CoStar may not require you to subscribe to products covering one or several geographic areas as a condition to subscribing to products covering other geographic areas. However, CoStar may continue to offer its customers discounts if they purchase more than one of CoStar's products or subscribe to products covering more than one geographic area. CoStar also may offer its listings and information products to its customers bundled together on new platforms, although CoStar has agreed that if it does, it will also continue to offer the products separately for about 3 years at commercially reasonable prices.

APPENDIX F

To settle concerns arising from CoStar Group, Inc.'s ("CoStar") proposed acquisition of LoopNet Inc. ("LoopNet"), CoStar has agreed to enter into a consent order (the "Order") with the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). This document explains some provisions of the Order that may affect how CoStar does business with you. The FTC and CoStar agreed that CoStar would send this document to you to be sure you are aware of the Order and its key terms.

This Order does not impose obligations on you. Rather, it gives you certain rights in your business dealings with CoStar. Below is a brief description of those rights, and directions on how you can get more information about the FTC's Order.

The Order makes clear that you may choose to do business and to provide commercial real estate listings and information to CoStar's competitors, and that CoStar won't offer you less favorable price or other contract terms because of that. CoStar may by contract continue to prohibit you from providing data from CoStar's database to CoStar's competitors. However, your contract allows you to provide CoStar's competitors with commercial real estate listings and information derived independently of CoStar's databases.

The Order also protects you from the early termination of your contract by CoStar except in certain circumstances. With a few exceptions, CoStar may not terminate its services without prior notice to you, unless: (1) CoStar obtains an order from a judge or an arbitrator; or (2) CoStar follows a procedure outlined in the Order that requires CoStar to provide written notice of the termination to the monitor appointed by the Commission, discuss the reasons for the termination with you within 2 days after the termination, and follow other steps. In many circumstances, you will have the right to arbitrate any contract dispute with CoStar.

The Order also ensures that CoStar will not penalize you if you provide commercial real estate listings or information to CoStar's competitors, endorse or invest in CoStar's competitors, or exercise your right to terminate a multi-year contract. CoStar may continue to charge different prices and offer different products to its customers, and may terminate or decline to renew contracts if customers do not agree to the contract terms permitted by the Order. However, the Order generally ensures that CoStar will not offer less favorable prices, product offerings, or other contract terms, and will not terminate your relationship with CoStar because you are doing business with CoStar's competitors.

The Order gives you additional protections with respect to how you purchase CoStar products. For example, CoStar may not require you to subscribe to one of CoStar's products as a condition to subscribing to another CoStar product. Similarly, CoStar may not require you to subscribe to products covering one or several geographic areas as a condition to subscribing to products covering other geographic areas. APPENDIX G

To settle concerns arising from CoStar Group, Inc.'s ("CoStar") proposed acquisition of LoopNet, Inc. This document explains some provisions of the Order that may affect how CoStar does business with you. This Order does not impose obligations on you. Rather, it gives you certain rights in your business dealings with CoStar. Below is a brief description of those rights, and directions on how you can get more information about the FTC's Order.

You do not have to contract with CoStar to accept a data extract or the right to maintain data from a CoStar database in your database. However, if you do contract with CoStar to accept a data extract or the right to maintain data from a CoStar database in your database, you may become a "Future Restricted Customer" as that term is defined by the Order. For Future Restricted Customers that choose to provide commercial real estate listings and information to CoStar's competitors, the Order permits CoStar to enter contracts with them to keep records to verify that any of the listings or information provided to CoStar's competitors were derived independently of CoStar's databases. CoStar also may contract with such customers to agree to occasional confidential audits conducted by a monitor, who the FTC has appointed at CoStar's expense, to verify that information from CoStar's database has not been provided to CoStar's competitors. The Order further permits CoStar to enforce contract terms prohibiting Future Restricted Customers from acquiring an interest of greater than 20% in a CoStar competitor or from participating in the management of a CoStar competitor. In addition, the Order allows CoStar to enforce contract terms to prohibit Future Restricted Customers from making their employees available on a regular or recurring basis to gather information for CoStar's competitors.

If you have a contract with CoStar that has a term longer than 1 year, the Order allows you to terminate the contract, for any reason and without payment or penalty of any kind, on 1 year's written notice.
