5. Defendant waives all rights to seek judicial review or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of this Order. Defendant also waives any claim that it may have held under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, concerning the prosecution of this action to the date of this Order.
6. This action and the relief awarded herein are in addition to, and not in lieu of, other remedies as may be provided by law.
7. This Order reflects the negotiated agreement of the parties.

8. The parties shall jointly be deemed the drafters of this Order; the rule that any ambiguity in a contract shall be construed against the drafter of the contract shall not apply to this Order.

10. The Commission's action against Defendant is an exercise of the Commission's police or regulatory power as a governmental unit.

11. The paragraphs of this Order shall be read as the necessary requirements of compliance and not as alternatives for compliance, and no paragraph serves to modify another paragraph unless expressly so stated.

MONETARY JUDGMENT AND CONSUMER REDRESS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

- A. Judgment is hereby entered in favor of the Commission and against Defendant in the amount of Forty Million Dollars ($40,000,000).
- B. Defendant is ordered to pay this judgment by depositing Forty Million Dollars ($40,000,000) into an interest-bearing escrow account (“Escrow Account”) no later than fifteen (15) days after entry of this Order. A representative of the Commission and Defendant shall execute an Escrow Agreement no later than seven (7) days after entry of the Order, which shall provide instructions to the Escrow Agent consistent with the terms of this Order. The money deposited into the Escrow Account and all interest thereon (collectively, "Escrow Funds") shall be administered by BMC Group ("Escrow Agent") in accordance with the terms of this Order and the Escrow Agreement.

1. The Escrow Agent's acceptance of the deposited judgment amount into the Escrow Account shall constitute the Escrow Agent's agreement to comply with the terms of this Order and consent to the jurisdiction of this Court.
  2. All reasonable expenses incurred by the Escrow Agent to administer the Escrow Account and disburse Escrow Funds shall be paid from the Escrow Funds upon approval of a representative of the Commission, and such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Such payments shall be based on invoices, and shall be paid timely and on a rolling basis as they become due.
- C. Defendant relinquishes all dominion, control, and title to the Escrow Funds to the fullest extent permitted by law. Defendant shall make no claim to or demand for return of the Escrow Funds, directly or indirectly, through counsel or otherwise.
- D. All Escrow Funds shall be used for equitable relief including, but not limited to, consumer redress and attendant expenses for administration of the Escrow Account, and for administration of consumer redress, as set forth herein, including in Subparagraphs E and F below. If direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or if Escrow Funds remain after redress is completed, the Commission may apply all remaining Escrow Funds for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendant's practices alleged in the Complaint. Any Escrow Funds not used for such equitable relief, as set forth herein, including in Subparagraphs E and F below, shall be deposited to the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. No portion of any payment under the judgment herein shall be deemed a payment of any fine, penalty, or punitive assessment.

E. Consumer redress that would otherwise be conducted by the Commission using the Escrow Funds pursuant to Subparagraph D may be instead conducted through prompt, court-approved resolution of one or more private class action lawsuits against the Defendant, provided however, that a representative of the Commission must approve of each of the following components of any such class action resolution:

1. the Class Action Settlement Administrator submitted for court approval in the class action(s), with the Class Action Settlement Administrator being required to handle consumer information in a manner that is consistent with the Commission's privacy and data security policies and practices;
2. the Notice Administrator submitted for court approval in the class action(s);
3. The Class Action Notice and the Notice Plan submitted for court approval in the class action(s);

4. The Consumer Claim Form submitted for court approval in the class action(s); and
5. The Settlement Claim Procedures and Claim Calculation Protocol initially submitted and any changes subsequently submitted for court approval in the class action(s).

Where approval is required by a representative of the Commission, such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld and shall be timely provided.

- F. If the conditions in Subparagraph E are met and no Termination Events occur, as defined in Subparagraph G, and pursuant to the instructions of the Escrow Agreement, the Escrow Agent shall release Escrow Funds in accordance with the Settlement Claim Procedures and Claim Calculation Protocol to pay the reasonable expenses necessary to provide notice to potential claimants in the class action(s); reasonable administrative expenses, including the costs of and expenses incurred by the Class Action Settlement Administrator and Notice Administrator; and disbursements to valid claimants. Such payments shall be based on invoices and shall be paid timely and on a rolling basis as they become due. Escrow Funds shall not be used to pay any other fees, costs, or expenses associated with resolution of the class action(s), including but not limited to attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, or incentive payments to the class representatives.
- G. The Commission may, at its sole discretion, terminate the obligations under Subparagraphs E and F, if:

1. A settlement agreement and preliminary approval order containing the terms outlined in Subparagraph E is not submitted to the court within thirty (30) days after entry of this Order; or
2. The Notice Administrator has not completed publication notice pursuant to the Notice Plan within eight (8) months after entry of this Order; or
3. The Class Action Settlement Administrator has not begun accepting claims from eligible claimants within eight (8) months after entry of this Order; or
4. The disbursement of Escrow Funds to eligible claimants has not begun within one (1) year after entry of this Order; or
5. The court fails to approve or approves something that is materially different in Subparagraphs E.1-5 than what is approved by a representative of the Commission; or
6. The Class Action Settlement Administrator is, for any reason, replaced, and a representative of the Commission does not approve the next Class Action Settlement Administrator agreed to by the Parties to the class action(s) and recommended for approval to the court in the class action(s), with such approval by a representative of the Commission to be timely provided and not to be unreasonably withheld; or
7. The Notice Administrator is, for any reason, replaced, and a representative of the Commission does not approve the next Notice Administrator agreed to by the Parties to the class action(s) and recommended for approval to the court in the class action(s), with such approval by a representative of the Commission to be timely provided and not to be unreasonably withheld

(collectively, "Termination Events"). A representative of the Commission shall, consistent with Subparagraph F, authorize the Escrow Agent to use Escrow Funds to pay all valid costs and expenses incurred up to the date of the Termination Event.

H. If a Termination Event occurs and the Commission elects, at its sole discretion, to terminate the obligations under Subparagraphs E and F, then:

1. The Commission shall have sole discretion regarding the use of the remaining Escrow Funds in accordance with Subparagraph D, and the Escrow Agent shall only release Escrow Funds in accordance with instructions from a representative of the Commission;
2. The Commission may, at its sole discretion, continue to work with the Class Action Settlement Administrator and Notice Administrator; and
3. Within fourteen (14) days of receipt of a written request from a representative of the Commission, Defendant shall provide the following information in accordance with instructions provided by a representative of the Commission:
  - a) A list of all consumers who purchased any Covered Product directly from Defendant during the relevant time period, provided such information is kept in the regular course of business; and

- b) Subject to court approval in the class action(s), any information that Defendant, its agents, or the Class Action Settlement Administrator have regarding the class action claims.
  - c) Defendant, its agents, or the Class Action Settlement Administrator shall confer with a representative of the Commission concerning the manner, format, and production of the list and information transmitted.
- I. If Escrow Funds remain after payment of all claims and expenses as part of redress conducted in accordance with resolution of the class action(s) as provided in Subparagraphs E and F, then the Commission shall have sole discretion regarding the use of the remaining Escrow Funds in accordance with Subparagraph D, and the Escrow Agent shall only release Escrow Funds in accordance with instructions from a representative of the Commission.
- J. The total amount of all payment obligations incurred herein shall not exceed the total amount of Escrow Funds.
- K. Defendant shall have no right to challenge any actions the Commission or its representatives may take pursuant to Subparagraphs D, G, H, and I.
- L. Defendant agrees that the facts as alleged in the Complaint filed in this action, and only for purposes of this Order, shall be taken as true without further proof in any bankruptcy case or subsequent civil litigation pursued by the Commission to enforce its rights to any payment or money judgment pursuant to this Order, including, but not limited to, a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case. Defendant further stipulates and agrees, for purposes of this Order, that the facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C.

§ 523(a)(2)(A), and that this Order shall have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

- M. In accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701, Defendant is hereby required, unless it has done so already, to furnish to the Commission its taxpayer identifying number, which shall be used for the purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of Defendant's relationship with the government.
- N. In the event of default on Defendant's obligation to make payment under this Order, interest, computed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961(a), shall accrue from the date of default to the date of payment.
