Seven Mile's Business Description

Seven Mile Capital Partners (“Seven Mile”) is a New York-based private equity firm that seeks to acquire either control or substantial influence of both individual companies as well as portfolios of companies. Seven Mile’s current investments consist of two distinct segments: a venture and growth portfolio consisting of companies with strong underlying fundamentals and growth prospects in their industries; and a more traditional LBO portfolio consisting of fundamentally strong and stable middle-market companies that had been underperforming due to operational or business challenges or were going through a transitional event.

Seven Mile, working in partnership with experienced management teams, focuses on companies where new capital, management alignment and a long-term investment horizon can help achieve superior investment returns. Seven Mile’s team of professionals approaches each investment opportunity with a hands-on approach and works with each company’s management team to define and implement mutually beneficial goals through supporting growth opportunities and assisting with operational improvements.

Seven Mile's investment philosophy for individual companies follows a disciplined investment approach based on the following criteria:

- Middle-Market Companies with $5mm to $50mm in EBITDA in which Seven Mile can make a meaningful investment and exert either control or substantial influence
- Ability to partner with management teams willing to adopt a long-term investment horizon and invest meaningful time and equity in order to help achieve superior investment returns
- Focus on industry sectors where the Seven Mile team can add value to potential investments
- Companies that have strong underlying fundamentals and growth prospects and that are in out-of-favor sectors or are going through a transitional event.

Seven Mile’s venture and growth portfolio includes industry leaders in Renewable Energy, Cleantech, Recycling, Healthcare and Technology. Companies such as SolarReserve, GreatPoint Energy, MBA Polymers and Uplogix are experiencing rapid growth. Seven Mile’s traditional LBO portfolio consists of Industrial, Consumer Products, Financial Services and Outsourcing businesses. In this segment, Seven Mile continues to target companies, and portfolios of companies, in out-of-favor markets as well as those that are undergoing financial or operational restructurings or are orphaned subsidiaries of larger organizations.

Seven Mile's Portfolio currently includes the following entities:

- Asset Alliance Corp.
- British Credit Trust Ltd.
- Clarity Credit Mgmt Solutions Ltd.
- deltaDOT Ltd.
- Fusion IP plc
- GreatPoint Energy, Inc.
- HydroPoint Data Systems, Inc.
