IN THE MATTER OF

SUPREME FOOD PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC., ET AL.

CONSENT ORDER, ETC., IN REGARD TO THE ALLEGED VIOLATION OF THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION ACT

Docket 8699. Complaint, July 19, 1966—Decision, Oct. 19, 1966

Consent order requiring a Philadelphia, Pa., food freezer corporation, to cease using false pricing, savings and quality claims and other deceptive practices in selling its food, freezers and freezer food plans.

COMPLAINT

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, and by virtue of the authority vested in it by said Act, the Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that Supreme Food Products Company, Inc., a corporation, and Benjamin Jay Berman, individually and as an officer of said corporation, hereinafter referred to as respondents, have violated the provisions of said Act, and it appearing to the Commission that a proceeding by it in respect thereof would be in the public interest, hereby issues its complaint stating its charges in that respect as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Respondent Supreme Food Products Company, Inc., is a corporation, organized, existing and doing business under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, with its principal office and place of business located at 4246-4250 Market Street in the city of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania. It also has done business under the names of Supreme Frozen Food Company, Foremost Products Co., and Foremost Food Service.

Respondent Benjamin Jay Berman is an individual and officer of Supreme Food Products Company, Inc. He formulates, directs and controls the acts and practices of said corporate respondent, including the acts and practices hereinafter set forth. His address is the same as that of the corporate respondent.

PAR. 2. Respondents are now, and for some time last past have been, engaged in the advertising, offering for sale, sale and distribution of freezers, food and freezer food plans to members of the purchasing public.

PAR. 3. In the course and conduct of their business respondents now cause, and for some time last past have caused, the aforesaid freezers and food to be shipped from their aforesaid place of business in the State of Pennsylvania, and from the various places of business of their suppliers located in the State of Pennsylvania, to members of the purchasing public located in various other States of the United States, and maintain, and at all times mentioned herein have maintained, a substantial course of trade in said freezers and food in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act.

PAR. 4. In the course and conduct of their business, respondents have disseminated, and caused the dissemination of, certain advertisements concerning the said food and freezer food plans, by the United States mails and by various means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, for the purpose of inducing and which were likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of food as the term "food" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act; and have disseminated, and caused the dissemination of advertisement concerning the said food and freezer food plans by various means, including but not limited to those aforesaid, for the purpose of inducing and which were likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of freezers, food and freezer food plans in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act.

PAR. 5. By means of advertisement disseminated as aforesaid and by the oral statements of sales representatives, respondents have represented, directly or by implication:

1. That purchasers of their freezer food plan can buy their usual food requirements and a freezer for the same or a less amount of money than they have been paying for food alone.
2. That purchasers of respondents' freezer food plan will save enough money on the purchase of their food to pay for the freezer thereby receiving a freezer free of charge.
3. That the totals shown in respondents' sales contracts include all charges the purchaser must pay.
4. That respondents' regular and usual food prices are those charged for the initial order of food.
5. That purchasers can obtain all of their food needs through respondents' freezer food plan.
6. That all the food products sold by respondents are nationally advertised brands.
7. That the freezers sold by respondents are "frost free."
8. That all meats sold under respondents' freezer food plan are United States Government inspected and graded "choice."

Complaint

9. That purchasers of respondents' freezer food plans have but one payment per month to make covering both food and freezer.

10. That the initial food order supplied by the respondents will last purchasers four months.

11. That purchasers can become members of respondents' freezer food plan on a trial basis.

12. That purchasers of the aforesaid freezer food plan can sign blank contracts and notes with the assurance that when such instruments are filled in the terms and conditions and amounts as set forth therein will be the same as agreed upon and disclosed at the time of the sale.

PAR. 6. In truth and in fact:

1. Purchasers of respondents' freezer food plan cannot buy their usual food requirements and a freezer for the same or a less amount of money than such purchasers have paid for food alone.

2. Purchasers of respondents' freezer food plan do not save enough money on the purchase of their food to pay for the freezer and in fact must purchase and pay for said freezer.

3. The totals in respondents' sales contracts do not include all charges the purchaser must pay. Finance charges are later added to the amount which the purchaser must pay.

4. Respondents' regular and usual food prices are not those charged for the initial order of food. Respondents use lower than normal prices in the initial food order to induce purchasers to become members of their freezer food plan. On subsequent food orders customers pay the normal higher prices for food and the purported savings which induced purchasers to become members of the freezer food plan are no longer available.

5. Purchasers cannot buy all of their food needs through respondents' freezer food plan.

6. All the foods sold by respondents are not nationally advertised brands.

7. Freezers sold in connection with respondents' freezer food plan are not frost free, but accumulate frost and require manual defrosting.

8. All meats sold under respondents' freezer food plan are not United States Government inspected nor are they all United States Government graded "choice."

9. Purchasers of respondents' food plan are required to make two monthly payments, one for food and one for the freezer.

10. In many instances the initial food order supplied by respondents will not last for four months but lasts for a substantially shorter period of time.

11. Purchasers of respondents' freezer food plan cannot enroll in such plan on a trial basis. The contracts entered into and promissory notes signed by them are noncancellable and irrevocable and they are bound by the terms thereof.

12. All the terms and conditions are not disclosed at the time of sale. In many instances when contracts and notes which have been signed in blank are filled in, the terms, conditions or amounts as set forth therein were not the same as agreed upon and disclosed at the time of the sale.

Therefore, the advertisements referred to in Paragraph Six were, and are misleading in material respects and constituted, and now constitute, "false advertisements" as that term is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, and the statements and representations referred to in Paragraph Six were, and now are false, misleading and deceptive.

PAR. 7. In the course and conduct of their business, and at all times mentioned herein, respondents have been in substantial competition in commerce, with corporations, firms and individuals engaged in the sale of freezers, food and freezer food plans.

PAR. 8. The use by respondents of the aforesaid false, misleading and deceptive statements, representations and practices has had, and now has, the capacity and tendency to mislead members of the purchasing public into the erroneous and mistaken belief that said representations were and are true, and into the purchase of substantial quantities of freezers, food and freezer food plans from respondents by reason of said erroneous and mistaken belief.

PAR. 9. The aforesaid acts and practices of the respondents, as herein alleged, including the dissemination by respondents of false advertisements as aforesaid, were and are all to the prejudice and injury of the public and the respondents' competitors, and constituted, and now constitute, unfair methods of competition in commerce, and unfair and deceptive acts and practices in commerce, within the intent and meaning of the Federal Trade Commission Act, and in violation of Sections 5 and 12 of said Act.
